HARRY SOLOMON

Aberdeen Street -- Opposite American House

Mrs. B. C. Borden and Miss Elaine Borden of Sackville, who have been spending a few days in Halifax have returned home.

Dr. C. T. Campbell, who has been very sick for the past two weeks was reported a little improved in condition last evening.

The quarter of a century anniversary sale of W. E. Porter is one of the biggest events in town this week. The prices of which goods are offered are attracting crowds of people and every day valuable presents are given away to the largest buyer of goods. Read his announcement in this issue and then decide to save money on footwear, china, glass, crockery and silverware by visiting this store while the sale continues.

Vincent Fortier, who was severely wounded at the front some months ago, has recovered sufficiently to be assigned to "base" duties, but the medical board in England has pronounced against his being sent back to the firing line at any rate for the time being. -- Annapolis Spectator.

On Tuesday Samuel Mack, of Upper Granville, while driving load of apples to Bridgetown, was thrown from the load and his arm so badly crushed that he was taken to Halifax for treatment where the arm was amputated above the elbow.
-- Spectator.

Lost--Sometime in September, between Halls Harbor and Centerville, two crib-quits, Finder please communicate with Advertiser Office.

The following particulars of the death of Pte. Clyde Fielding has been received by Dr. E.
N. Payzant as follows:

Dear Friend.--It is with great regret that I write you in reference to Pte. H. C. Fielding, who was killed instantly while heroically doing his duty on the "ring line" on Oct. 1st.

As the Chaplain, I have every confidence that he was fully prepared for the end. He was respectfully buried and a cross will be erected over his grave.

He was respected and honored by us all, and we all mourn with his friends in their great sorrow.

With deepest sympathy,
Capt. (Rev.) H. W. Burnett,
Chaplain 25th Batt.
France, Oct., 1916.
