They Mourn Their Boy.

A very sad accident occurred here on Friday last while some boys were in Cross' woods. It appears that the boys had gone there and took a rifle along to have a target practice. While Rupert Johnston was fixing the target one of the boys picked up the gun (not knowing it was loaded) and in doing so the gun discharged the bullet lodging in the body of Rupert Johnston. One of the boys ran as quickly as possible to the store of Rupert's father to apprise him of the accident but Mr. Johnston was out of town before Mrs. Johnston and Miss Cora Wood, a trained nurse, arrived the boys done their best to stop the flow of blood from the wound. Rupert was conveyed to his home and Dr. Bright and Dr. Moore were called, as well as Dr. Cornell of Brockville. Everything that could be done but to no effect. Rupert was conscious up to within a few minutes of his death, and talked with them and sang a favorite hymn of his. He repeatedly stated that he did not attach any blame to the one who unfortunately held the gun while it discharged. The young life took its flight about two o'clock Sunday morning, Aug. 29th, 1915, at the age of 13 years.

The funeral took place at 1.30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon and was one of the largest seen in Athens for a long time. The young folk were there in large numbers. They formed in line and marched to the church, where Rev. Geo. Edwards, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Hagar of Frankville, Rev. Usher, Presbyterian minister, and Rev. Claxton.

The choir was composed of the young and older girls and sang very nicely. The floral tributes were beautiful and composed the following:
Mound of Violets—Mrs. Yates.
Water Lilies—Mrs. Mulvena, Charleston.
Pansies and Asters—Dorothy Shaw.
Asters—Arthur Shaw.
Wreath with name Rupert—Mrs. R. Powell, Miss Johnston, Mrs. Price, Spray—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stevenson.

Wreath and Pillow—Methodist S. S. Broken Circle—Boy friends.

Spray—Lloyd and Brice Wilson.
Water Lilies and Spray—Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lamb.
Spray—Dora Klyne.
Spray—Lyman Judson.

Spray—Mrs. J. Harvery and children Paul and Ivan.
Spray—Mr. David Green.
Spray—Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnston.

The Odd Fellows attended in a body and will be greatly missed by his young associates.
Great sympathy is expressed for the grief-stricken parents, and young brother, Leonard, and grandmother Mrs. C. L. Lamb.

Smith—Purcell.

A wedding of interest to many in this place and vicinity occurred on Wednesday evening last, Aug. 25th, 1915, at seven o'clock at the residence of Mr. Edward J. Purcell, of Athens, when his daughter, Opal, became the wife of Mr. Walter H. Smith, B.Sc., of this place and formerly of Chatham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Swayne, rector of the Anglican church, in the presence of about fifty guests. The house was neatly decorated and the contracting couple, who were unattended, were united under a floral bell. Following the ceremony congratulations were showered on the newly-married couple and a sumptuous repast was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse until Mr. and Mrs. Smith took their departure in a motor car for Brockville. The next day they left for Niagara Falls and Chatham where they will spend two weeks.

Mr. Smith has a host of friends in town and is well known throughout the counties as the district representative of the of the Ontario Agricultural Department.
His duties have brought him into prominence throughout the counties and his courteous and obliging disposition have won for him many friends.
Mrs. Smith is equally popular with a wide circle of acquaintance.
The REPORTER joins in extending congratulations.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Sent for list of testimonials.

Brockville Fair Promises Success

In a short time the big Fall Exhibition will be in full swing, and the program of attractions that has been arranged should insure one of the largest and best fairs in the history of the Brockville Association.
The free attractions before the grand stand include two flights each afternoon by the celebrated aviator W. S. Luckey, who will give an exhibition of bomb-dropping, and other war manoeuvres. Two companies of athletes will give thrilling performances on the stage between the trial of speed, and the Special Horse Prizes provide for some very interesting competitions in the ring—and for four long hours each afternoon there will be something doing to interest the crowd.

Brockville Fair has a good reputation and the management have decided that this shall be if possible a little better than previous years.
The programme and prize lists are placed in the different banks for distribution, where copies may be secured.

Brockville Business College
On the east side of the Fulford Block, Court House Avenue, Brockville, is a large sign bearing the words BROCKVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE. This sign last year needed repainting and a sign Painter offered to do same for $10.00 per word or a total of $30.00. This sum Principal Rogers thought too much, so the painter made the following offer: To paint the first letter for one cent and the price was to be doubled on each succeeding letter of the three words BROCKVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE, i.e., that is the doubling process was to go on for 24 times after the first letter. To this the principal agreed. When the painter sent in his account the principal was alarmed and thinking there was a mistake sat down and worked it out. Finding that the account had been rendered correctly the business college manager sent the painter a check for $30.00. If the painter insists on his own proposal, how much is coming to him?
