

Items Of Local Interest

"Quo Vadis" or Whither Goest Thou, the massive sensational picture of the Roman era will be shown at the Opera House next Tuesday night only. Every one should see this super production.

Dr. Pauwels, Chiropractor, of Windsor, has decided to open an office in F. W. Barteaux's building, and his hours will be from 10.30 to 12.30 on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. See his announcement on page eight.

Through a misunderstanding last week THE ACADIAN announced as the first winner in the subscription contest Mrs. Reginald Hennigar, of Greenwich Ridge. We should have stated that the successful contestant was Mrs. Hennigar's little son, Marshall, who called and received the beautiful fountain pen, of which he is now the proud possessor, on Wednesday of this week.

PORT WILLIAMS HAPPENINGS

Mrs. A. F. Newcombe and her daughter Miss Gladys spent the Easter holidays in Halifax with their friend Miss Jean Bennett.

Mrs. Haverstock and Merle have been on a visit with relatives in Beaver Bank. The Teachers spent their Easter holidays at their homes, Miss Edmonds at Bridgewater, and Miss Coleman at Aylesford.

Mr. Jas. Hanson, of Camp Hill Hospital, spent Sunday with his mother and sister.

Mrs. Clarke is doing a good business in her millinery venture. The stock is well selected and her work stylish and tasteful. Several customers from Wolfville have gone back well satisfied with their purchases. Miss Jackson, of Berwick, is the assistant milliner.

Mrs. A. B. Rand, who has been very ill, though still confined to her bed, is slowly improving.

Miss Meta Morris, of St. John's, Nfld., a student at the Conservatory of Music, Halifax, spent Tuesday the guest of her friend, Mrs. (Capt.) Jas. Faulkner.

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reagh Fraser last week taking their baby girl, four months old. This is the second death in their family within a year. Rev. O. N. Chipman conducted the funeral speaking on the subject of the Master plucking the lilies out of His garden. The family has the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.

Mrs. Nichols, of Somerville, Mass., spent a few days here last week attending the wedding of her niece, Miss Thelma Gates.

The Burbridge-Gates wedding on Wednesday 12th, was one of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in the Baptist Church. Following the service a large reception was held at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gates.

Mr. Norman Regan and bride arrived home on Tuesday Evening and were serenaded by a number of the boys who enjoyed the refreshments provided them.

Miss Queenie Regan was the guest of her uncle at Middleton for the Easter holidays.

Inspector Davidson visited the schools here on Wednesday. This is his first visit after appointment.

Miss Lucy Cogswell spent the week end in Wolfville with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Curry.

At the meeting of the Women's Institute last week interesting papers were read on the care of different flowering plants, prepared by the school teachers, and on garden seeds, by Miss Susie Chase. Mrs. A. F. Newcombe sent an extensive review of both Foreign and Domestic "Current Events" for the month.
