How People Differ.

Hew People Differ.

There is a great difference in people. Some are not satisfied at ordinary methods of doing things but require that a great deal of noise and nonsense be made over the most trivial thing, while others are grateful for good done, no matter how knumble the means or agency. The latter phase is illustrated in the action of Jas. T. Fitch, Alton, Out., who writes that he cannot refrain from informing us of a remarkable cure effected by a favorite remedy for chest and throat disease, Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Chembus Balana. He says: "My sister caught a severe cold which settled in quick consumption. I procured two bottles of the Balsam, which wrought such a change, fift by its after use she was completely effective remedies that cannot injure if they do not cure, cannot do better than try Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam for diseases of the throat and lungs.

New York publishers complain that the sales of copies of the revised New Testament have almost wholly ceased. There was a craze for them when the edition was first issued, but so many blemishes have been discovered that no church has yet had the temerity to substitute the revised for King James' versioh.

A Perfect Man.

A Perfect Man.

It is a pity that men were not like the doctor's celebrated one horse chaise so perfectly constructed in every part that no one would give out before the other, but after years of perfect use all crumbled to dust together. Then there would be no mending here, no patching there, no doctering for colds, pains, or like ills; and best of all ne advertisements of patent medicines. But even then as flesh is now constructed, there would be such mishaps as frost bites, chilblains, burns, scaled boils, erysipelas, felons, strains, etc., but these could be as easily cured by the use of Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liminent as the deacon could wipe the dust of his one horse chaise. If you do not believe this statement try a bottle.

Dr. Wilson's Anti-bilious and Preserving Pills, used according to the directions, always do gool, and leave no fill effect behind them. They contain no mercury.

It is reported at Victoria, B. O., that the Syndicate has definitely concluded to make his mainland tyrninus of the Gamadian Pacific Railway on the reserve of three thousand acres situated at Hastings on Burrard Inlet.
