Church Dedication — Orange Blossoms—Obituary, &c.

Weddings now appear to be the order of the day—and night. No less than four have taken place in this vicinity quite recently. First and foremost the Carleton county con-

Tuesday. The knot was ted in woonstock, the happy couple returning home to an eight o'clock supper, at which were a few near relatives and friends. The boys failed to be up to the racket, and did not put in an appearance for the purpose of a screade until Wednesday night, where they met with disappointment, the bride not being at home. However least Monday night they rallied in force and presented themselves before the house. After a few moments din they were taken inside and regaled with something that cheers but does not inebriate, unless partaken of too copiously, (Socteh) somebody said. The boys they gare some songs, three cheers and a tiger for the bride and groom and dispersed. They have done as com-was to have spokmer of young folk frum the same place.
