CONFIRMED ASSESSMENT.

Important Precedent Established by Court of Revision.

No. 5 Ward Reductions Amount to Only $27,000.

In Same Ward Last Year Reduction Was $75,000.

The Court of Revision, at its session yesterday, by confirming the assessment on the McKerlie property between James and Hughson on King street, which had ben increased to about $200 a foot, established a precedent, which, it is believed will have an important bearing as far as the King street property is concerned, on Martin Malone's appeal to have the assessment on the Martin es-tate increased. This case will come up on Friday afternoon at the session set aside for the hearing of legal argu-

It is thought likely that the court will increase the assessment on the Martin stores after confirming the assessment on the others as made by the de partment.

The Court yesterday knocked off about $27,000 in Ward 5, as compared with $75,000 for the same ward last The appeals allowed yesterday were as

LAYMEN'S MISSION.

Secretary of the World Movement Here To-morrow.

A good deal of interest is attached to A good deal of interest is attached to the visit to this city, to-morrow, of Dr. Campbell White, secretary of the Lay-men's Missionary Movement of the World. Mr. White is going through Canada just now on behalf of this moveada just now on behalf of this movement, and is to meet all who are interested in First Methodist Church. The proceedings will open with a prayer service at 5 o'clock, led by Rev. J. K. Unsworth, of First Congregational Church. At 6 o'clock the ladies of the church will serve tea and at 7 o'clock Mr. White will give an address on the movement. This will be followed by a discussion in which all who so desire may take part.

MUNICIPAL PROBLEMS.

Dr. S. Morley Wickett, who will be the speaker at the Canadian Club luncheon on Friday evening, is, the author of a forthcoming book, "Municipal Government in Canada." This book deals with the history of municipal government in this country, and reviews present conritions in several of the Canadian cities. When briefly interviewed in Toronto yesterday, Dr. Wickett expressed the opinion that the cities and larger towns of the Dominion are undoubtedly moving toward the elective council plan with a

There is still considerable talk around railway circles that both Canadian railways will appoint auditors to make ticket collections on their trains, in place railway circles that both Canadian railways will appoint auditors to make of conductors, as at present. Although this has been denied, it is stated, from official headquarters, there is still a feeling that the Canadian lines will follow American roads in this respect.

The new stores department of the T. & J. O. Railway at North Bay will be finished by the end of the year.

AT THE PRESBYTERY.

Proposition to Unite Barton Church With Chalmers'.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Hamilton Presbytery, Sir Thomas Taylor and Capt. Hardy were appointed a committee to try to bring about an amalgamation of Barton Presbyterian Church with Chalmers' Church. At pre-Church with Chalmers Church. At present Barton Church is united with St. James (Locke street) Church. The proposition is to have the one minister for the two mountain churches.

It was announced that Binbrook and Saltfleet Churches are now self sustaining.

Sattleet Churches are now self sustaining.

The matter of appointing commissioners to the General Assembly was left over till the January meeting.

Rev. T. L. Turnbull, of Oncida, was granted four months' leave of absence, on account of ill health.

FIRESIDE CLUB.

Study of the Life of Sir John Macdonald.

Six papers on different periods of the life of Sir John A. Macdonald were arranged and read by members of the Fireside Club of Centenary Church in the new quarters last evening. A large at tendance was the feature, and muc knowledge was received from the writ ten career of this noted statesman. Pre knowledge was received to the career of this noted statesman. President Charles Foote was in the chair and all the other officers were present. It was practically decided that the society should have a motto button and designs were submitted for approval. The selection will most likely be made at next meeting. The critic's remarks by Norman Mead were timely and to the point. An adjournment was made to the banquet tables, and during the participation of the luncheon a programme of addresses by the president and by the pastor, Rev. R. Whiting, and Mr. J. Orr Callaghan, and sevyal musical selections by other members were given. or Callaghan, and sevial musical se-lections by other members were given. The next meeting, Nov. 19th, will be given up to stump speeches, all taking part.

Fatal Prank

New York, Nov. 6.—His efforts to save his hunch from the vandalism of joking fellow workmen cost Alexander Dalyborax his life. He was a lineman employed by the New York Central Railroad, and was working on the wires just north of the Morris Heights station, near Highbridge. When he arrived for work Dalyborax carried his lunch box, to the top of a pole and left it there, as the workmen had been in the habit of substituting stones and other things for the ing stones and other things for the food they find in each other's

At noon Dalyborax climbed the pole to get his lunch. Suddenly his foot came in contact with two live wires that carry the electricity that supplies the third rail. He fell forward, and for a time the body was suspended in midair, head downward, while his fellow employees looked on, powerless to release him. The electricity at last burned through the imprisoned leg, and the body dropped almost at the fest of the men looking on. foot came in contact with two live
