Ministerial Association Discusses Problem of the Day.

At the regular meeting of the Ministerial Association this morning Rev. John Young introduced the following motion, which was carried unanimously "That this Association endorse the action of the Moral Reform Council, of Canada, amending the criminal code with a view to prohibiting race track gambling in the Dominion, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the city representatives in the Domto the city representatives in the Dom-inion Parliament.

T. F. Best read a paper dealing with the young man problem of the city, and gave a number of suggestions whereby the interest of the young men could be aroused in the work of the church. The pastors of the churches, he said, should show more interest in their young men. There should be more complete organi-zations for helding and interesting them. He also suggested mass meetings, to be held for men at different periods, and that the work of the Laymen's Misand that the work of the Laymen's Mis and that the work of the Laymen's Mis-sionary Movement be made especially a young men's undertaking. The paper brought about a long discussion and the Association passed a hearty vote of ap-preciation to Mr. Best.

No Trace of the Rosalind-Strathclyde Overdue.

New York, Dec. 6.-The Red Cros ine's headquarters in this city stated to-day that the last they had heard of the Rosalind, which sailed from Halifax for St. John's, Nfld., six days ago was when the St. John's office reported that the steamer had passed Cape Race, Nild., on Friday on its way from Halifa: to St. John's. From this report the offi-cials here hoped that the Rosalind was safe, and was being detained from mak-ing a landing at St. John's because of the heavy weather and dense fogs, which have prevailed in that vicinity for several days.

Another vessel over which the maritime exchange is disturbed is the British freighter Strathelyde, which sailed on Oct. 30 from Barry for Hampton Roads, and which has not been reported. She was in ballast and had a crew of 35 men. The vessel was due on Nov. 19.

And Horse Owner Seeks Damages From the County

Councillors Are Inclined to Fight Damage Cases.

Question of Beach Taxes Comes Up This Afternoon.

Wentworth county legislators met this morning for the final session of the year Considerable business of an important nature was considered and passed upon From present indications it appears as though the Council will soon dispose of

Warden Gage in opening the meeting oriefly outlined the order of business Among the communicatoins read by County Clerk Jardine were two letters laiming damages and also a letter from Country Constable Sinclair, claiming half the amount of the fines of the automobile drivers whom he had convicted for over-speeding. He claimed $30.

The damage cases were first taken up, and resulted in the Council taking a firm stand in the matter. The first was that of Malcolm G. McPherson, who claimed damages because his horse became damages because his horse became frightened at an umbrella in the hands damages because his horse became frightened at an umbrella in the hands of a child who was walking along a road where he was driving, about a quarter of a mile from Freelton. He claimed his buggy was damaged to the extent of $25, his horse to the extent of $50, and his clothes to the amount of $7.

Councillor Hills asked if the county should be held responsible for mush-rooms that grew up in a night or for umbrellas in people's hands. His opinion was that McPherson should not go out driving on a rainy day, if his horse was going to shy at umbrellas.

It was explained that the matter complained of was a ditch which the driver said was seven feet deep, near the Freelton cheese factory.

"Do you think it shied at the smell of the cheese?" asked Councillor Hills.

The matter was referred to the Road

The road was about 32 feet wide and was not dangerous.

Road Superintendent Taylor said he did not consider it wise to fix all the culverts up, as the cost would be very heavy.

Councillor Hills advocated that the Councillor Hills advocated that the culverts be repaired if it was necessary, but thoulgt it advisable to fight a couple of cases until the county could see where they were at in the matter. It was decided to take no action. Warden Gage announced that a special meeting of the Legislative Committee had been called for at 1.30 to discuss the Beach taxes matter.

An amusing occurrence was that two of the county constables had claims to the $29 reward for the arrest and conviction of Warren Mallory on a horse-stealing charge. The first was that of Constable Laidman, who outlined how he had followed the culprit and telephoned to Constable Williams at Dunaville to apprehend him. ville to apprehend him.

The by-law in regard to the question was looked up, and was to the effect that the person who apprehended or caused to be apprehended the thief was entitled to the reward, and the treasurer was instructed to pay the $20 to Constable Laidman. It was decided not to grant Constable Williams anything.
