this Company auren about $50,000 to its permanent capital, for the increased protection of its Insurers. This step disincly shows that the Company has always seted upon the principle chancisted by the of the directors at the last Annual Meeting of the proprietors—that the interests of the ssored have a paramount claim on the lirictors - a claim superfor even to that of Le shareholders themselves.

" From that moment, as might be experied, the Company attained the highest ons detation throughout the country, and ias retained it ever since. The result is hown in the unexampled fact that its Fire Revenue alone rose in about five years rem little more than £30,000 to alcut £130 000!

" A further cause of this rapid growth ies somewhat more below the surface, but is jet of importance. From inquiry we earn that no fire office possessing half the thove revenue amonally deposits its accounts with the Registrar-general.

The resources and balance-theet of this great Company are, on the contrary, munally registered, and unmistakeable vidence is thus given periodically of its copacity to meet its engagements."-Morning Herald, December 16, 1855.

"Incerd, the bonus of the 'Royal' may he pronounced to be larger than any yet leclared by the mass of the English offices. Here is an effice which yields a fairly carn, st and wholesome reversionary bonus of 8 per centum in its Life Branch, and in egard to fire operations, can make this ery enviable boast, that it has exceeded he Fire business of all but two of the London Fire offices - viz.: the receipt of learly £130 COO per year in Fire premiums alone - some of which ancient chices have been in existence for a century! Equally successful and singilar in both tepartments. Indeed, the Life Departs neut may be said to present results equally s worthy of mention." -- Morning Chronicle. Vovember 28, 1855.
