RED CROSS WILL HOLD PAGEANT

The Red Cross Societies of the towns of Newcastle and Chatham are putting on a Pageant and Tableau in the Opera House, on Friday Oct. 13th. In order to bring before the people, the wonderful work of the Red Cross in War and Peace, from the earliest times to the present, some of our best local talent are taking part and an interesting feature of the program will be the unveiling by history of the portrait of Henry Dunant, the originator of the International Red Cross. In this scene, 38 public school children as flag bearers, representing all the countries, who signed the Peace Conference at Geneva, will group themselves below the picture.

The price of admission to the Pageant has been placed within reach of all, in order that everyone will be able to avail themselves of the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the great work that the Red Cross is doing to help humanity in Peace times as well as War. The price of admission is 25 cents. Be present yourself and bring your children.

Not So Much—A Philadelphia professor declares he has patented a light without heat. That's nothing very big. Why some of the coal we had last winter did, practically the same thing.

A Telling Test—The Windsor pastor who preached on modern women's dress very appropriately took his text from Revelations.

Mrs. Fraser Harris returned home last week having spent two weeks with relatives in Blackville.

Mrs. Sarah Coughlan of Blackville visited relatives in town last week.

DAYS OF SAW MILL JUST ABOUT OVER

Bathurst, September 30—Bathurst new paper mill for the manufacture of newsprint, will be the first of the kind in the Maritime Provinces.

It will be the vanguard of a series of paper mills in various parts of New Brunswick, revolutionizing the lumber industry of the Province.

The lumber industry, as carried on for the past half century or more has reached its high water mark, and the exportation of lumber in the rough, or raw state, is now on ebb tide and, before many years there will be little doing along that line.

Instead of that, a great paper mill industry will have grown up in New Brunswick, adding materially to the labor and capital wealth of the Province.

Asked what additional population would come to Bathurst as a result of building of the new paper mill, Mr. McLean said:

"We will follow our usual custom of drawing from the town and vicinity for the bulk of our help. We will, of course, have to bring in some forty or fifty expert paper makers and machine workers; but the new enterprise will mean more employment for three hundred and fifty or four hundred people and the bulk of these we expect to get from Bathurst and the outlying districts."

Regarding the future of New Brunswick, Mr. McLean said the fact that his company was engaging in a new enterprise of the magnitude of the paper mill pretty clearly indicated the Company's confidence in the future of New Brunswick. Speaking especially of the lumber business, Mr. McLean made a prophecy that will be read far and near with much interest. "The lumber industry of the Province so far as the saw mill end of it is concerned has reached its high water mark and the tide is now receding and will continue to ebb rapidly—until there is little or no incoming tide in that direction. That will, of course, have its disadvantages, but it would also have its advantages, and there is no occasion for despair. The Pulp and Paper Mills will be the back bone of the lumber business in the near future and will replace the lumber mills of the country to a very large extent. Under the new order a tremendous waste of lumber will be practically eliminated. Pulp and paper plants will be able to utilize every part of a tree down to a three inch top, and in addition to that the expenditure for labor will be fully three times as much in manufacturing one thousand feet of timber into paper than on one thousand feet manufactured into lumber."

MONOTONY

I have always noticed that people who move about the world much, people who travel, who feed their minds upon new, fresh impressions, new experiences, have more vitality than those who remain cloistered at home. They are fresher, their minds are more alert, they are more buoyant physically and mentally, more cheerful, hopeful, more alive because their minds are better nourished; they are growing while the others get into a rut and stagnate.

Monotony is fatal to growth. People who live secluded, monotonous lives, become such slaves of habit that after a while they don't want to make any change in their daily routine. They cannot bear to go away from their home comforts. They are rooted in one place; their lives are rutty, their minds become rutty, stale. They are dull and stagnant like a pool of water that has no outlet.

RUMOR DENIED BY BRITISH ADMIRALTY

The British Admiralty has emphatically denied that any capital ships, due to be scrapped under the Washington treaty, were being sent to, or prepared for service in the Near East or any other part of the world.

The Admiralty further stated that on the contrary, these ships long since had their stores unloaded, their ammunition taken off and all parts dismantled ready for the shipbreaker, while several others have already been broken up.

A GREAT CROP OF CRANBERRIES

Cranberry picking is in full progress on the Shepody marsh, in Albert County, with one of the best crops in years. Some of the best are solid berries covering quite a large surface on certain sections of the marsh, and will yield a nice sum to the marsh owners. The berries are selling locally for $2.50 a bushel, and hundreds of bushels will be gathered. The cranberry "colony" numbers many pickers, those not owning the marshes picking "on the shares", meaning half to the pickers and half to the owners. In the old days the pickers as a rule only received a third of what they picked. Good hands will pick from a bushel and a half to two bushels a day, but these must be experts and have particularly "good picking." A bushel a day is pretty fair work, as a novice will agree. The berries this year will not only furnish a large yield in the aggregate but are said to be very large and a good quality. If all the cranberries on the Shepody marsh are used they will make a big hole in the sugar crop.

Don't forget the Rummage Sale on Oct. 12th in the Town Hall in Aid of the Miramichi Hospital.

ST ANDREW'S CHURCH

Owing to St. Mark's Nelson having their annual sale of Work and Tea at Birch Hill, Nelson, on Thursday of this week, the W. A. of St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle, will meet on Wednesday of this week at 3 o'clock in stead of Thursday.

INCREASED REWARD

Premier Foster announced that the department of the attorney general of the province had decided to increase to $1,000 the reward offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Frederick H. Trifts, who was found dead in his automobile in Douglas Avenue early on the morning of July 6, 1922. The original reward was for $500.

DEMPSEY IS WILLING

"I am willing to meet Battling Siki, the new light heavyweight champion of the world, or any other aspirant for my crown, if proper arrangements are made." Such was the declaration of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight fighter, when seen Wednesday night on his return from his camp at Correy's Lake, where the famous champion was successful in bringing down a moose. The moose threw Dempsey, but did not hurt him.

RETURNS FROM AUTO LICENSE FEES IN N B MAY EXCEED $300,000

Information that a new high record had been made in returns from automobile license fees has been given. The actual receipts to date are about $296,000, and it is expected that the $300,000 mark will be reached and probably exceeded when all returns are in.

There are about 16,000 motor vehicles being operated in the province which would be in excess of 2,000 more than last year.

1922 LOAN WILL BE FULLY CONVERTED

Ottawa, Sept. 26—(Canadian Press)—With the books in the government's conversion loan closing on Saturday, September 30 (there is at present every indication of the 1922 loan being fully converted. NEWCASTLE CHILD BADLY INJURED BY AUTO TRUCK

The little four year-old son of Offe Collette was struck and very badly injured by an auto truck Tuesday afternoon near Hennessy's Corner. The child ran in front of the truck and was knocked down, fortunately the car did not pass over it, or the result would have been fatal. The child was taken to Dr. McGrath's office in an unconscious condition and bleeding profusely from the mouth, nose and ears. The head was injured at the base of the skull. The child was removed to its home, and after regaining consciousness suffered considerably. The driver of the truck, which was from Chatham was taken into custody and locked up but later released, the facts going to show that the occurrence was purely accidental. The truck driver expressed his willingness to appear any time he was asked for.

TURKS AGREE TO AN ARMISTICE

London, Oct. 1—The British cabinet held a two hour council, beginning at eleven o'clock last night and then adjourned until ten o'clock this (Sunday) morning, after many hours of intensive study of the situation throughout Saturday.

It was announced that there was no material change in the Near East situation but this was merely the official way of putting it.

Direct word has come from Constantinople in the Associated Press despatches that M. Franklin-Bouillon's mission to Smyrna has been successful which means that Kemal Pasha is ready to consider a peaceful way out of the recent difficulties. Another announcement was made at Constantinople that Kemal would confer with the allied generals early in the week and that Kemal has been requested by General Harrington, the British Commander, to arrange for a new line between the British and Turkish forces around Chanak in the neutral zone.

A Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that M. Poincare has handed to Lord Hardinge, the British ambassador and Count Sforza, representing Italy, a telegram from M. Franklin-Bouillon relative to his conversations with Kemal.

Lord Hardinge is quoted as declaring that Kemal's attitude is very reasonable.

Paris, Oct. 1—The text of Mustapha Kemal Pasha's reply to the allied joint note of September 23 was made public tonight by the foreign office. The reply is dated September 29 and promises immediately to stop the military operations which have been developing toward Constantinople and Chanak "in pursuit of the Greek armies"

It accepts the proposal for an armistice conference at Mudania next Tuesday with representatives of the entente and nominates General Ismet Pasha to act for the Turks.

Dealing with Thrace the reply is worded by marked firmness. It credits the entente with sentiments of justice towards Turkey but demands that Thrace shall not be left one day longer under the Greek Army, saying it is indispensable that Thrace shall be evacuated immediately and restored to the Angora government up to the west of the Maritza River, including Adrianople.

The Newcastle sub-division of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, will hold a sale of Home Cooking in Mrs. Bannon's store on Saturday, October 7th, commencing at 3 p m

Won't Relinquish the Perquisites

Another thing that adds no little to the gaiety of nations is the sight of an emancipated-and-independent suffragette suing for divorce on the grounds of non-support.

BIG GAME SEASON OPENED YESTERDAY

The big game season opened on Monday, October 1st was the first official day but as big game hunting is illegal on Sunday October 2nd was the day. Game shot already has been killed on special license which can be obtained by the payment of an extra fee.

The big game licenses have been sent out from the Crown Land Office for distribution among the vendors for sale in order that the hunters may lose no time. The number of licenses are expected to be about the average.

The Department of Lands and Mines is attaching to each big game license sent out a warning to hunters to be careful of human life. Note is made of the fact that eighteen men were shot in mistake for game in 1921 in this province.

WEDDINGS

MOUNTAIN—CROCKER

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crocker, Newcastle on Sept. 5th when their third daughter Ethel Sarah became the bride of Freeman John youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Mountain of Blackville.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. A. Grant of Blackville in the presence of relatives and immediate friends of the bride.

The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a gown of blue canteon crepe with steel trimmings and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was unattended.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants.

After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The out-of-town guests being Mrs. A. M. Underhill, Misses Muriel E. Underhill and Ethel S. Corney of Blackville.

The happy couple left by auto amid showers of rice and confetti for the groom's home, where supper was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride who for the past year has been teaching in Blackville was the recipient of many useful and beautiful presents testifying to the esteem in which she is held. The groom's gift to the bride being a handsome string of pearls.

Miss Edna Vye, who has been visiting her uncle Mr. G. A. Vye Digby N. S. and her cousin Dr. J. V. Graham Halifax, for the past three weeks has returned to her home in Blackville

DURING THE WEEK

The eyes of Canada are again across the sea. The call for contingents if needed, to support Britain is stirring the military ardor of the war veterans, and offers of service are pouring in from individuals, batteries and battalions. We had put our war maps away not expecting to need them again in our life time, but again we look at Thrace the neutral Dardanelles zone, and the new geography which may again need to be revised overnight.

Meanwhile Canada is gathering her greatest harvest and is starting on the upward way again, with exchange at par. We may well hope that another billion of dollars may not be added to our burdens.

The Unspeakable Turk—Only a people hardened by killing Armenians could produce a cigarette with that kind of smell.

Our deadly Dissipations—Sleeping on one's left side is healthy, but probably more and more men are doing it—since it's about the only form of dissipation left.

Adding Insult to Injury—It's a blooming shame to have to pay taxes on what some people smoke. At least so writes a subscriber who declares he was gassed in the war.
