The home of Elliot Henderson in Wainfleet, near the Sandhill, was completely destroyed by fire together with the entire contents including a sum of money on Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and two children were absent at the time and no one was about the place. When Mr. Henderson returned there was nothing left but the ashes of his home. The fire is thought to have started from an overheated stove, due to an onrush of gas.

William Mains, a Wainfleet farmer, met with a serious and very painful accident on Saturday afternoon, when he was hit or run over by an automobile driven by G. V. Bousfield. Two ribs were fractured and the unfortunate man was horribly hurt about the head, one ear being almost severed. He was taken to the hospital, but is now at his home in Wainfleet where he was reported yesterday to be resting as easily as could be expected. Mr. Mains had just driven his team in front of Benson's blacksmith shop, and was crossing the street to Somerville's when he was hit by the automobile.

APPLES FOR ONTARIO

Some Varieties Recommended for Home Orchards.

Early Bearers and Annual Producers
Desirable — Also Varieties Not Easily Liable to Disease — Hardiness Also a Good Quality — Keep Potato Rot From Spreading.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

THE home orchard should provide high-class dessert and cooking apples throughout the entire apple season, or from the middle of July until the following spring. It is quite easy to select varieties for any part of old Ontario which will do this satisfactorily. The varieties selected should come into bearing early, should produce annually, and should be as free as possible from diseases of all kinds, so that they may be handled with a minimum of expense and care. Throughout this article the varieties mentioned are listed in the order of their season of use, so that instead of selecting to cover the season.

In order to simplify the selection of varieties for any given district a classification of the most desirable varieties is given herewith based on their relative hardiness, which is their ability to withstand cold winters successfully.

Hardest:—Transparent, Duchess, Dudley, McIntosh, Hibernia, Crab. These are hardy as far north as Parry Sound, and can be grown successfully even further north.

Second Hardest:—Astrachan, Alexander, St. Lawrence, Wealthy, Colvert, Snow, Scarlet Pippin, Wolf River, Golden Russet.

Third Hardest:—Blenheim, Tolman, Spy.

Fourth Hardest:—Gravenstein, Wagner, Stark, Greening, Ben Davis.

Fifth Hardest:—These varieties are more or less tender and thrive best south of a line drawn from Hamilton to Brantford and Goderich.

Sixth Hardest:—These varieties are tender and thrive best in the Lake Erie counties, although they are not entirely satisfactory even there.

Keep Potato Rot From Spreading.
When harvesting potatoes, more especially in damp seasons, it is essential to pick them over and discard any specimens that are diseased, particularly those that show any indication of rot. If this is not done, the disease is liable to spread through the whole mass during storage.

SOMETHING ABOUT MILK

Mysteries and Marvels in Its Production and Life.

How Milk Is Secreted—Thunder Does Not Sour Milk, But Bacteria Does the Business—Agalactia, or Absence of Milk, Occurs More Frequently With Cows Than in the Females of Other Live Stock.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

A CONDITION known as "agalactia," or absence of milk in the mammas at the time of parturition, probably occurs more frequently in cows than in females of other classes of stock. It may occur in a female in any condition as regards general health, general care and surroundings. The causes, or conditions to which it is due, are not well understood. It occurs even though pregnancy has been apparently normal and has reached full term. It is probably more frequently seen in females which have not bred for a long time, or in those which have produced their first young, though themselves aged. While it may occur in an animal under any conditions, there are conditions that appear to predispose an animal to the trouble. In such cases there appears to be a want of development in the lactal apparatus, which may have been caused by previous or present chronic disease of the udder, a chronic lessening in bulk, called "atrophy" of the udder, exhaustion following disease, severe labor, insufficient food, either during or immediately after pregnancy, natural debility, emaciation, etc.

The mammas is usually small and soft, and attempts to milk produce only a few drops of a yellowish fluid, in some cases followed by a few drops of a whitish, watery fluid. Treatment is frequently unsuccessful. It consists in feeding liberally on easily digested milk-producing food, massaging the udder frequently and stripping the teats three or four times daily. Great attention should be paid to the digestive organs in order to keep them as normal as possible, and the patient should be kept so that she will take considerable exercise. The writer's experience has been that the administration of drugs is non-effective.

In many cases the gland becomes perfectly inactive, and remains so until after the next parturition, when, in most cases, it becomes normal.—J. H. R., O. A. College, Guelph.
