Wedding Bells.
KEMP-WALSH.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Sacred Heart, on Saturday last, the contracting parties being Mr. W. J. Walsh, the popular manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.'s business here, and Miss Annie Kemp, one of the most popular and esteemed young ladies of Placentia. The bride looked charming in a dress of champagne colored satin and wore a veil with a wreath of Lilies of the Valley. She was attended by Miss Marion Green, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. P. F. Mansfield. The ceremony was performed by our worthy pastor, the Rt. Rev. Mons. Reardon, in the presence of a large number of friends. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride where a reception and dance were held which was attended by one hundred guests. After a sumptuous repast had been partaken of, the happy couple left for Holyrood where the honeymoon will be spent. The guests remained and participated in dancing until evening when supper was served. After the wants of the inner man had been fully supplied, Mr. Frank Murphy, in an eloquent speech, proposed the health of the bride and groom. Speeches were given by the bride in full, but it suffices to say that it was one of the most masterly addresses ever heard in Placentia. Mr. T. P. Kemp responded to the toast so ably proposed by Mr. Murphy. Speeches appropriate to the occasion were also made by Messrs. P. F. Mansfield, J. Fitzgibbon and E. P. Fitzgibbon, after which dancing was again indulged in and kept up in the good old style until the wee small hours. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful wedding gifts which showed the esteem in which the happy couple are held. We join with their many friends in wishing them very many years of happiness.
Placentia, Jan. 11th, 1910.

Annual Meeting of Saint Andrew's Congregation.

At the annual meeting of St. Andrew's Congregation, held last night, the following were elected a committee of management for the current year:—Hon. James Baird, R. Wright, J. C. Hepburn, T. McNeil, R. A. Templeton, A. K. Lumsden, P. K. McLeod, C. W. Henderson, W. Clouston and J. Syme.

There was a large attendance and Hon. James Baird occupied the chair. The reports submitted by the officers showed that the Church had had a very successful year. A pleasing feature of the meeting was the singing of two songs by Mr. Moncrieff Mawer. He also gave a few selections on the piano which were equally delightful. The meeting was brought to a close by Benediction being pronounced by Mr. William Frew.

Death of Mrs. Jardine.

Her many friends in the city were grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. James Jardine which occurred this morning at her late residence, Cochran Street. Deceased who was an estimable lady and an ardent church worker, met with an accident about four years ago by falling, which brought on dislocation of the hip. This resulted in lameness which necessarily confined her to the house most of the time since. The lady's friends of St. Andrew's Church always regretted the loss that her enthusiastic assistance in church work ever since and missed her services very much. Deceased is survived by her husband, Mr. James Jardine, of the Customs Examining Dept., two sons, Mr. Harvey, at Baird's office, and Mr. John, in Western Canada, and three daughters:—Miss Grace, Mrs. W. Joyce and Mrs. C. Duder to whom the Telegram extends its sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place at 2.30 p.m. on Friday.

Mission Band.

A very successful sociable was held by the Girls' Mission Band of Cochrane Street Church last night. Considering the condition of the weather the attendance was large. The programme was a well varied one and included songs, recitations and club swinging, etc. All who contributed were warmly applauded. Refreshments were served afterwards, and candy was sold by the young women. A very handsome sum was realized.

CARD TOURNAMENT.—The members of the T. A. & B. Society will have another of their enjoyable card tournaments to-night. Two handsome prizes have been put up for competition.

The Election Campaign.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, Jan. 11.

From the increasing confidence which is being manifested at the Unionist headquarters, and the enormous enthusiasm which has been aroused throughout the country, it may be taken that a tremendous poll will be recorded at the coming elections, and that hosts of electors who usually are too careless or indifferent to vote will be brought out. It is upon this section of the community that both sides are depending to uphold their cause, and both sides appear equally sanguine. While the struggle is maintained with vigor it becomes increasingly difficult to find anything striking or novel in their speeches. Premier Asquith at Ipswich, and Mr. Balfour, the opposition leader in the Commons at Glasgow, both addressed large gatherings at open air meetings to-night. Balfour devoted himself to criticising the omissions in the Premier's election address. Mr. Asquith dwelt at some length with the question of Tariff Reform. He asserted that the advance of Germany and the United States was attributable to other causes than tariffs; that the U. S. had an internal free trade, and Germany had become a formidable rival by reason of her education and organization. Among the minor incidents of the campaign David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has drawn a handsome apology from Lord Rothschild for wrongfully attributing to the Chancellor the declaration that there was a likelihood of England having to expatriate the Jews. The late President McKinley was quoted to-night by a lecturer that if he were an Englishman he would be a free trader. The Earl of Crewe, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in a letter to the press holds out hope that a grant will be made from the Imperial funds to subsidize a British Cotton Growing Association for a term of years.

Conspiracy Against King Manuel.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LISBON, Jan. 11.

In connection with the firing upon the sentries by a group of men, who were prowling around the palace two nights ago, and the first of a number of Republicans, the police announced to-day that they have discovered a widespread revolutionary conspiracy. Additional arrests have been made of the men supposed to be the ringleaders, and the police have seized large quantities of explosives, arms, masks and complete disguises. Several persons in the hands of the authorities have confessed that they are members of secret societies, banded together in plots to overturn the Government. Their exact plans have not been revealed, but the Lisbon newspapers declare that these include the assassination of King Manuel. The plot was unearthed as a sequence of the murder at Cascaes not far from Lisbon of one of the revolutionists, who, while attempting to steal a quantity of cartridges at the Custom House which were intended for the revolutionists, was slain by his fellow conspirators on the ground of treachery.

France and Japan.

Special to Evening Telegram.

PARIS, Jan. 11.

The position of France, with reference to the proposition for the neutralization of the Manchurian railways, is thus defined. France has no political interest in the question, excepting to remain loyal to her ally, and to do nothing that will be offensive to Britain or Japan.

When those three Powers have reached an agreement France will follow in their wake. If later an international financial syndicate is formed France will participate upon the condition that it is afforded a basis of absolute equality with the most favored nation.

Prussian Diet Meets.

Special to Evening Telegram.

BERLIN, Jan. 11.

Emperor William opened the Prussian Diet to-day. The proposed legislation outlined in the speech from the throne includes a bill for the reform of the election law and the measure to counteract the tendency of the laboring classes to desert the farming districts. The speech foreshadowed a considerable deficit in the forthcoming budget, notwithstanding the increased receipts through improved conditions of trade. The deficit is due chiefly to an increase of fifty million dollars in the salaries of Government employees. The Reichstag reconvened to-day.
