Will Cross Atlantic in Small Motor Boat

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Braving the perils of the broad Atlantic, G. S. Ruhland, of Philadelphia, will attempt to cross the ocean in a motor boat, the Regal Victor, accompanied by a volunteer crew of six men.

The little craft is being built at St. Michaels, Md. So far two men have been selected to accompany Mr. Ruhland. They are George Olson and M. D. Bangs, of Camden, N. J., and upon Mr. Bangs will in a large measure depend the fate of the expedition, for he will have control of the two gasolene engines.

The start will be made from Philadelphia early in next June.

"We expect to make the trip in ten days," said Mr. Ruhland. "We will carry food and water to last two weeks, however."

"Of course, this is not a new idea. The ill-fated Roumania was cast away on the coast of Newfoundland only a few weeks ago, but we hope to have better fortune."

Walking About With a Broken Neck.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—A broken neck is merely an incident of the day's work with Alexander McLeod, Canadian aviator, who is reported rapidly recovering in the West Pullman Hospital, following a fall last week. Physicians asserted McLeod's neck was broken in two places, but despite the breaks, the hospital physicians to-day said, "McLeod is doing nicely. He walked around his room yesterday."

Inter-Collegiate Football Match.

The first of the inter-Collegiate series of football games took place Saturday at St. George's Field, the St. Bon's and the Methodist eleven competing. The teams lined up:

St. Bon's—Goal, Lundrigan; backs, Leseman, Murphy; halves, Rawlins, Halley, Hogan; forwards, Duchemin, Crawford, Keegan, Smith, Hagen.

Methodist—Goal, Ross; Backs, Halves, Crumme, Lynch; forwards, Gear, Joffe, Hayward, Parsons, Tucker.

The St. Bon's won out in this game by 3 goals to nil. After 20 minutes play the St. Bon's lads who were up against the wind, put in their first goal and the half closed without further scoring. When play was resumed St. Bon's put up a quick game and in about 15 minutes had scored 2 more goals. Lundrigan saved well for St. Bon's on one or two occasions and gave a nice exhibition of goal tending. The Methodist lads put up a good fight despite their defeat and with much practice will be a team to reckon with before the season closes. Wednesday afternoon the St. Bon's and Fiddians meet and a good game is looked forward to. If the Methodists take the cup this year it will become their own property.

A Dog's Sagacity.

Yesterday a number of boys played about the King's wharf with a big Newfoundland dog. A big swell ran in the docks and the boys made vain efforts to induce the dog to swim. Suddenly the animal saw a piece of plank in the water and jumped in after it. Grasping the plank in its teeth the animal towed it towards the landing. Repeated attempts made to land with it were futile and the dog became exhausted. Suddenly it climbed up on the plank, lay across it, with its fore and hind paws in the water, and using these as propellers made towards the jetty, on which the boat and its support was thrown in safety by the rushing tide. When the dog had spelled the boys again threw out the plank and the sagacious canine performed the task to the delight of his youthful friends and the admiration of several adult spectators.

A Big Sea Ran.

Owing to the storm of Saturday night and yesterday morning a big sea ran outside and the whole Narrows was "breaking." Considerable damage was done to fishing premises out in that section. In the harbor a heavy undertow ran and wharves were considerably damaged, big shores were torn away, while landing ways were wrecked off. Vessels at the wharves had to get extra moorings to keep them from being damaged.

PARIS, Oct. 1.

The "Matin" learns from a high official in Italy, that the Turkish Government does not oppose the occupation of Italy, and that Italy is ready to give Turkey the fullest satisfaction, and that both the moral and material suzerainty of the Sultan will be recognized. A large indemnity will be paid, and everything done will be agreeable to Turkey in other ways. Italy will be as liberal as possible, said the official, both in justice to Turkey and out of consideration for the Powers, for "we want, at all costs, to prevent them from being involved in complications."

Foreigners have taken refuge at the Consulates. The British consulate is crowded to its utmost capacity with women and children. The native conscript reservists have been called out. The Turks are purchasing all available camels and securing all possible supplies. The belief that British war vessels are in the vicinity is tending to calm the anxiety of Europeans. The native population express the hope that the Turkish fleet will soon arrive.

At Portugal Cove.

Yesterday being what is known in the R. C. Cathedral Parish as "Cove Sunday," the usual celebration was observed at Portugal Cove. At 11.30 High Mass, Coram Pontifice, was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Gough, the pastor. He was assisted by Rev. J. Pippy of St. Patrick's and Rev. Dr. Greene of the Cathedral. His Grace the Archbishop was attended at the Throne by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche, V.G. The music of the Mass was Gregorian chant. Miss Gosse had charge of the choir and Miss M. E. White rendered the solo at the offertory, "Ave Sanctissimi." His Grace after Mass preached the most appropriate sermon and referred particularly to the origin of "Cove Sunday" and the many associations connected with the anniversary since the days of Father Troy, who founded the mission over 70 years ago. At the conclusion of the interesting discourse the Archbishop administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to fifty children and five grown candidates. At 1.30 luncheon was served at the Presbytery at which the following guests were entertained hospitably by the pastor: His Grace the Archbishop, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche, Rev. J. J. St. John, Rev. Dr. Greene, Rev. J. F. Pippy, Mayor Ellis, Messrs. W. R. Howley, J. M. Kent, John Dwyer, V. P. Burke. The celebration was a grand success.
