

GILLETTE

The Symbol of Clean-cut Modern Manhood

By making shaving so easy, the Gillette Safety Razor has done much to develop the typical man of to-day—that strong, aggressive, successful individual who scorns to disguise his features with a beard or to appear with an unkempt stubble on cheek or chin.

Shaving with the Gillette takes but three refreshing minutes. You waste no time honing or stropping—or fuming in the barber's waiting row. The Gillette makes home shaving so easy and luxurious that it is no more a task, but an agreeable incident in the morning toilet.

There are over 40 Gillette styles from which to choose. Standard Sets, like the illustration, cost $5.00—Pocket Editions $3.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, with brush, soap and other toilet articles, run from $6.50 up. From the assortment which your Hardware Dealer, Druggist or Jeweler can show you, buy a Gillette—you'll enjoy it.

Admirers Slap King On Back.

London, July 28.—The King and Queen of Spain, who arrived in London on Saturday night, passed yesterday calling on the King and Queen of England at Buckingham Palace, with an automobile drive in the afternoon to Windsor, returning to dine at Kensington Palace with Princess Henry of Battenburg.

When King Alfonso arrived on Saturday night he had to make his way as best he could through a throng of admirers, some of whom slapped him vigorously on the back. King Alfonso took this most good-humoredly and turned round and saluted the throng.

THEFT REPORTED.—The police have been acquainted that several camps pitched near Long Pond have been entered lately during the mid-day hours and quantities of provisions have been stolen. The police hope to run down the culprits.

Mary's Mentionings.

The Unknown Thanks Her Kind Friends.
Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Many of my friends, that is, those who are continually blaming some person else for my writings, were glad to hear that "Mary" was still in the flesh, and writing to the Telegram. I thank them one and all for their kindness to me. It is a great relief to my mind to know that some other person is receiving credit, as I am not over fond of notoriety. Tom told me last night that he is amused about the streets these days to hear the few People's Party men wondering what Sir Robert Bond is going to do. Their masters are the same, and one of the most prominent Tories in town is turning quite gray, and worry is said to be the cause. What a fright they will get to be sure. Tom says that real politics was never so dull before so near an election; but it appears to me that our Tory friends are like Mr. McCawber "waiting for something to turn up." Of course all things come to those who wait, and Toryism will get what it is waiting for this fall. It is real nice to see people of all political opinions on good friendly terms in August of an election year. Time was when a most heated discussion would be on about this time, but we are living in an age when people are getting more sense, and are not going to be offended with their neighbors because they happen to think differently on the political situation. Of course, it is no harm to say what everybody knows to be true, just to remind them you know, and that is that Sir Robert Bond is the only real statesman we have in this country, a statesman with genuine love for his native land. His past record in saving her from disaster is proof enough of what I am now saying. He is a gentleman we can trust to uplift this our Island Home, when an opportunity offers, and has brains enough to make the opportunity.

Tom was working on the railway but he had to give it up. He is not near so active as he was a few years ago, nor I either for that matter, and I persuaded him to give up that hard work to people who could stand it better, and trust to the few days work each week he can get around here, and that together with our gardens will help us live comfortably the latter years of our lives. You will be glad to hear, Mr. Editor, that all the rheumatism has left my old frame, and I feel quite well. Tom says I am getting smarter and better looking every day. What do you think sir; why on Wednesday last I got ready and went across the harbor to the Garden Party held there by the Church ladies. It was a grand time. I would have liked to go in the motor boat so kindly offered for the occasion, but I am afraid of the puffing of these baby steamers, so I preferred a passage with Uncle Edgar in the ferry. They may say what they like about their gasoline boats and steam ferries, but give me the old sail boat, with no possibility of an explosion, unless it may be some Island Cove woman letting off gas at Edgar for being too quick or too slow in leaving the wharf on either side.

Yours sincerely,
MARY.

Mr. Grace, August 1, 1913.

Tory Member Is Up For Contempt.

Winnipeg, July 29.—The hearing was resumed this morning on the application for the commitment to the common jail of Alexander Morrison, Conservative M. P., for contempt of court, by failing to comply with an order of the court for examination, and failing to produce certain documents regarding the petition that has been entered against his election as member of parliament for Macdonald in the notorious by-election of last year. The point as to failure to attend an examination was not pressed by counsel for the petitioners, owing to an error in the date in the subpoena, but that concerning the commitment of responding for failing to produce the documents was vigorously pressed, and Mr. Justice Cameron, in spite of numerous technical objections, raised by counsel for the respondent, made an order for the production of an affidavit respecting the documents within three days, the penalty for failure to comply with this order to be commitment.

ADVENTIST CHURCH.—At the Cooktown Road Church, to-morrow evening, Elder M. M. Campbell, of Oshawa, Ontario, will present "The Downfall of Turkey," as revealed in prophecy. All who are watching the movements of the Powers on the chess board of political interests in the Far East, will spend an hour to good advantage in listening to Elder Campbell upon that absorbing topic.
