

"BEAVER" FLOUR

is both a
Bread Flour and a
Pastry Flour

The perfect flour is the one that combines the good qualities of Ontario and Western wheat. This is exactly what "Beaver" Flour does. It is a blend of best Ontario fall wheat with a little Western wheat to add strength. "Beaver" Flour is equally good for Bread and Pastry—it has the real home made flavor that western flours lack. NICE, France, Sept. 18.
Three electric cars filled with passengers, while passing over a bridge near the village of Villeneuve Loubet jumped the rails and fell forty feet into the ravine. Twelve were killed and thirty injured.

QUEBEC, Sept. 18.
Dr. Parkin, of Rhodes' Scholarship fame, arrived by the Victorian. He left for the Maritime Provinces at midnight. The object of his visit, he said, is to supervise the examinations in Canada and the States, which will take place about the middle of October.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.
Boys attending the schools in connection with the Roman Catholic Cathedral here, joined the ranks of the strikers to-day. When the hour arrived for beginning the lesson requiring the use of books supplied by a firm which had locked out its workmen belonging to the transport workers' union, the boys immediately rebelled. An attempt at coercion was followed by an attack on the masters. The boys, armed with slates, fiercely assaulted their teachers, two of whom were so seriously injured by the fighting that they had to be taken to the hospital for treatment.

LONDON, Sept. 18.
Sir Edward Carson, reviewing Ulster "volunteers" at Newry, said the plans of the provisional government to be established when the Home Rule Bill goes into effect, would be discussed next week. We mean to set up that government, he said. The dangers and difficulties will be great. It will, of course, be illegal, but so are volunteers. The British Government dare not interfere because I know you would not brook interference. There are illegalities which are not crimes. In his speech at Birkbeck, referring to Lord Loreburn's suggested conference, he said to participate would be to surrender.

LONDON, Sept. 18.
The motor-bus drivers have not yet taken any decisive steps as to the proposed strike, but the routes served by the motor-omnibuses of the small companies, which originated the dispute by refusing to permit their employees to wear trade union badges, are practically without the means of transportation. Out of 150 vehicles belonging to the concerns, fewer than 20 were taken out of the sheds this morning. Both sides show great determination. It is feared that the men employed by the other omnibus companies will carry out their threat and cease work Friday midnight. The men say that if they come out they will not return until all their grievances are remedied. They have asked for a uniform rate of wages, and also demand the adoption of re-

PILLS.

Pills are a harmless substitute for medicine which a doctor gives when he is up against it. All this happens about nine-tenths of the time, the use of pills is increasing to such an extent that they are prescribed for everything from a broken rib to the cure of corns. When a person has eaten something which refuses to lie down, he goes to a doctor and has his pulse timed to see if it exceeds 65 revolutions per minute. If the pulse is running on its regular schedule and the doctor is unable to find more than twelve or fifteen degrees of fever, he tells the patient that he is suffering from general lassitude of the cerebral cavity and puts up the same kind of pills which are used for facial paralysis. He also advises the patient to refrain from eating anything until the following Wednesday, give up the tobacco habit, drink a tub of hot water between meals and sleep with all of his feet on a soapstone. A person never realizes the value of pills until he has been cured by this route.

Pills are composed of a high grade of best sugar liberally dosed with flavoring extract. This extract has high curative properties and will fit any disease that was ever invented. It is usually attached to white pills and fed in large quantities to people who can see an attack of the grip edging around the corner. Some men can never hear the stenographer sneeze in a high-pitched voice without pulling a bottle of pills out of their vest pocket and draining the contents. A teaspoonful of white pills, increasing the dose every half hour will ward off everything but the undertaker.

The most disagreeable form of pill is the colored article, which can be tested for several days without any effort whatever. Doctors always insist upon the patient's taking one of these pills and allowing it to dissolve slowly on the tongue, after which it will cause the entire alimentary tract to rise up in rebellion. Pills would be more popular if they could be taken in the original twine and parcel post stamps.

Always Gave Something.

At a recent banquet in New York Mr. W. P. McCombs, told a story of a discussion on public generosity in a club smoking-room in which several well-known philanthropists were mentioned and praised to the skies.

After they had been speaking for some time, Mr. McCombs said, a man in the corner remarked: "Your philanthropists are all right, but I think it is only just that my 'next-door neighbor' should be included."

"I should say he is," was the emphatic reply. "No matter how many tramps go to his door he never seems to send one of them away empty-handed."

"You don't mean it!" exclaimed one of his hearers.

"I do," replied the other man. "He always gives them something; he always gives them a letter of introduction to me!"

Declined With Thanks

The burglar season is now on, and many small suburban households are the sadder for a visit from these genies.

There is a story told of a man who prepared to meet possible burglars by purchasing a small revolver. It was a nice little affair with "For Burglars" neatly engraved on the butt, and he was very proud of it, but one evening he forgot to take it upstairs to bed with him as usual. When he came downstairs in the morning he found the house despoiled of all valuables and a note lying beside the revolver: "Thanks; but I always carry my own!—The Burglar."

Her Criticism.

One of the most successful plays in London just now is Mr. Arnold Bennett's "The Great Adventure." Mr. Henry Ainley plays the leading role, and it is regarded by many as being the best thing he has ever done.

There is a pleasant little story told of the first time Mr. Ainley's mother saw him play Raffles, the cricketing burglar who smokes a cigarette at every opportunity.

After the play, Mr. Ainley asked his mother: "Well, what do you think of it?"

"I think," she replied, "that you are smoking too many cigarettes, my lad!"

All Great Men.

Referring the other day to feeling nervous when making public speeches, Sir Thomas Dewar told a story of a man who was suddenly called on to make a speech.

He was very nervous and self-conscious, but he began: "Ladies and gentlemen, Shakespeare is dead." Here he paused a second to think, and then went on: "Milton has passed away."

Again he stuck and tried again: "Tennyson is no more." For the third time he came to a dead stop, and, at last, miserably confused, he blurted out: "And I'm not feeling very well myself!"

Then he sat down.

Minimise The Loss.

Practically farmers may easily minimise the loss, due to a backward and cold season, by the judicious use of Sulphate of Ammonia as a fertilizer.

Sulphate of Ammonia contains over 20 per cent of nitrogen, as against 15 per cent in Nitrate of Soda, and is therefore more than 25 per cent better than nitrate of soda as a means of quickening and increasing the growth of crops.

The use of Sulphate of Ammonia has increased enormously of late years and it is recognized to be the most valuable fertilizer obtainable. By its judicious use the production of root crops per acre may be doubled, and the growth of late crops stimulated.

We invite the attention of Farmers to our special pamphlet on the best methods of using Sulphate, copies of which will be forwarded free to any address on application.

The price of Sulphate is moderate, and our terms are accommodating. ST. JOHN'S GAS LIGHT COMPANY, Board of Trade Building, St. John's, July 8, 11
