The Protection of Our Forests

One of the leading forestry engineers in Canada, after a careful survey of the timber areas of Quebec, declares there is not more than a twenty-one years' supply ahead of the Province, and that in view of the fact that Quebec leads the rest of the provinces in the manufacture of pulp and paper, there is no time to be lost in adopting a definite forest policy which will prevent fires, lessen the damage from insects and fungi, eliminate all avoidable waste in cutting, and plan for a continuous yield for the protection of the industries.

In respect of area Quebec has a great advantage over Newfoundland, and the dangers which threaten our neighbour are far more real and immediate here. If anyone, for instance, will visit the country which lies between the Freshwater Valley and the White Hills, he will find sufficient indication of the destruction that can be accomplished by the insect pest. There is some fine standing timber in this section, but the "looper" and the Spruce Beetle have been busily engaged in their work of destruction with the result that many of the trees are dying. From a distance the southern slope of Nagle's Hill gives the impression that it has been swept by fire. Years ago we found large areas in the Barachois river in which similar havoc was being wrought by insects, and on more than one occasion Mr. Arthur English has called attention to the same danger. Little or nothing has been done, however, to cope with it.

Various suggestions have been made as to the most effective method of dealing with this problem, and we believe much might be accomplished by affording every protection to the small birds, which live on the insects, and by a wholesale destruction of the crows and hawks, the birds' worst enemies. This year we have been singularly free from forest fires, but it is useless to trust to a continuance of such good fortune. A thoroughly competent fire protection service should be established by the Government, working in co-operation with the corporations which control practically the whole of the timber areas. In many parts of Canada scouting by means of aeroplanes has resulted in small fires being promptly located and extinguished before they have reached serious proportions.

Naval Parade

A contingent of 500 men of the Special Service Squadron, held a route march through the city this morning. The troops landed at Topsail at 9.30 and came to the town by special train. In front of the station the men fell in and paraded down Water Street. Passing the Court House His Excellency the Governor, attended by His Staff, and the senior naval officer, took the salute from a specially erected platform. As the men marched past the naval band from H.M.S. Repulse which had assembled at a point opposite the Court House, rendered "Life on the Ocean Waves." Proceeding along Water Street the troops halted near the National Memorial, where a wreath was placed. The parade then continued to Cochrane Street along Military Road and Harvey Road to the C. L. B. Armoury, where they piled arms and were dismissed.

The order of the parade was as follows: Band from Hood, Detachments Naval men from Hood, Repulse and Adelaide, Repulse Band, Detachment Marines, Com. FitzDolphin, R.N., lead the parade. Messrs. R. Dykes and J. Hodgson, official cinema operators from H.M.S. Hood, assisted by able Seamen Hillyer and Thorndyke took a series of views of the parade. Messrs. Dykes and Hodgson have been engaged by the Admiralty on the whole tour through the British International Film, Ltd., Sussex, Eng. They have taken altogether 150,000 ft. of film.

Dinner is to be served them at the Institute and also at the C.C.C. Hall. In the afternoon they will attend the A.A.A. Sports and later will fall in at the C.L.B. Armoury and march to the Railway Station, where they will entrain at 5.30 for Topsail. The return route will take them along LeMarchant Road and Patrick Street. Large numbers of people through the streets along the line of route which was gallily decorated with bunting.

The Methodist College

How at her mention, memory turns her pages old and pleasant. At her name the hearts of many thousands begin to sing, until the song circles 360° the globe. Practically the only Publicity ever given to this institution has been by the mouthpiece of her students "mighty effective," yet it seems as though the Island should know more of this splendid seat of learning. Her walls are bursting out with pupils, full six hundred are sheltered there, every seat in every department filled—magnificent, stupendous, of six hundred strong for the goal of success. The slogan of the Methodist College is the greatest good for the greatest number—not the pressing forward of a few exceptional students, but a steady consistent push of the whole flock to the prize—an education. About two hundred and twenty certificates are received by the scholars this year, thirty-five of which are Junior Associate. There is a great flutter amongst the old students just now—a great rejoicing for the old College has achieved success. She leads the country in every grade with the Jubilee Scholarship thrown in for good measure. Nothing but solid team work all through the grades from the kindergarten up could achieve so much for so many.

Prof. Harrington and his associate teachers constitute a real staff, each for the other and all for the College, and away she goes humming merrily on her way, while in the background sounds a solemn watch guard—The Board of Directors—keeping vigil over them all.

MRS. JAMES WISEMAN.

After a week's illness, following an acute attack of pneumonia, Mrs. Mariah Wiseman, (nee Durdle), wife of Mr. James Wiseman, Line Street, this city, passed out of this life at 10.30 last night. Although seriously ill, every hope was held out for her ultimate recovery, and as frequently happens with this insidious disease, death came with almost startling suddenness. Deceased was formerly a resident of Bonaville, and was the daughter of the late William and Mary Durdle of that town. Other relatives are three daughters, Mrs. H. G. Collis, and Misses Maud and Josephine at home; and three sons William in New York, John and Patrick at home; Mrs. Ernest Snow of Bell Island, is a sister, and George and Tobias Durdle of Bailey's Cove, Bonaville, and Edward, living in this city are brothers of the deceased. Mrs. Wiseman's death came with much severity to her family connections, as well as to a large circle of friends, who knew her by yesterday in the full vigor of a useful life, but are now called upon to grieve for a loving mother, affectionate sister and a true friend. The Telegram joining in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 67 Lime Street, to-morrow afternoon.

N.A.A.A. 4TH ANNUAL CHAMPIONSHIPS SPORTS DAY.

Great interest is centered in the 4th Annual Championships—Sports Meet, which takes place at St. George's Field this afternoon, commencing at 2.30, and a record attendance is anticipated. The Club competition for the Hayward Trophy will be of special interest and a keen fight for the points in all events is the prediction. The St. Bon's, C.L.B. and M.G.C.A. track teams will have a splendid array of athletes in the field, and all three Clubs are being strongly backed by their supporters to lift the much coveted trophy. The 10 Mile Race promises to be the most exciting event ever held here. Eight competitors will toe the line, and await the crack of the pistol to send them off on the long grind. The race will start about 4 o'clock, and motorists using the Topsail Road between the hours of 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. are kindly asked to watch out for the runners and stop their cars on the roadside until all have passed. No motor car or vehicle will be permitted to get in between the runners, while the race is in progress. This is a special request to all motorists and drivers of carriages.

NO JUNIOR FOOTBALL TO-NIGHT.

Owing to the A.A.A. Sports being on this afternoon and the uncertainty as to when they will be concluded, there will be no Junior League football game to-night. To complete the schedule two games have still to be played, one of which will decide the championship.

CARPENTER LEAVES FOR HOME.

Georges Carpenter, former light-weight boxing champion, has left New York for Paris accompanied by his manager, Francois Deschamps. For his defeats at the hands of Tom Gibbons and Gene Tunney, Carpenter received $115,000, but his manager says the trip did not pay, because it costs so much to live over here, and Uncle Sam insisted upon taking away a great part of their gains via the income tax route. Carpenter's net profits for the trip, Deschamps says, were only $52,000.

Boy Who Killed Two Lions

Probably the world's youngest lion hunter, Ronald W. Ryan, arrived in London a short time ago from Kenya Colony, Africa, with 200 other Boy Scouts from South Africa. Ryan is only fifteen, but already he has two lions to his credit, a claw from one of which he proudly wears in his hat band. He and his brother Scouts journeyed from Africa to take part in the jamboree at the Wembley Exhibition.

"I have killed two lions, one recently," he said to a newspaper representative at Wembley. "I was told off to look out for a lion who had accounted for one of our best mules, and I was camped by myself on the veldt. I knew there was more than one lion, and suddenly I came on them—six of them. "The largest one seemed asleep, so I shot him, but he reared up and fled. The rest of them scattered. I followed them, and after a while I came up with the old lion. I was ten yards away from him when I fired. The bullet went through his heart. "The other time I was with my father tracking a lion that had killed three horses on a farm. Suddenly we found the lion near us. He was practically a man-eater—a 'black-man lion.' I fired and hit him, and then fired three shots. It was not as easy as I am telling you. The lion became enraged at us, charged, and knocked us both down. It was then that I got in two quick shots, which finished him off. Ryan, whose home is forty miles from Mount Kenya, is South African born and bred, but originally his people came from Ireland with the 1820 settlers. Outside his tent at Wembley flies a flag on which is embroidered the head of an "old man" lion. Ronald's patrol all wear a lion's tail in their hats.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS CONFERENCE.

GENEVA, Sept. 10. Following out the idea that the League of Nations is the mechanism for holding successful international conferences, officials are already directing their thoughts to a place for a great international gathering for the reduction of armament which it is expected will be held at Geneva within one year. Officials pointed out to-night that the League Council has nothing whatever to do with deliberations or conclusions of the Disarmament Conference once it is started. When the assembly gives the word the Council will appoint a sub-committee to make the necessary arrangements and issue invitation.

PRESIDENT AND CABINET WELCOME FLIERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. Wearing from all day bucking against head winds and fog delays, Lieut. Howell Smith, commanding the army world flight, brought his air cruiser Chicago to a safe landing at Bolling Field here to-day, to receive the cordial greeting from President Coolidge and members of the Cabinet. Boston II, the substitute for the Boston, wrecked off Iceland, came in also with Lieut. Wade piloting, but the New Orleans went down within thirty miles of Washington, just this side of Baltimore, with stripped timing gears, and her pilot Lieut. Nelson came on as passenger in an escort plane. A forced landing for the whole squadron of world cruisers and escort marred the flight from New York.

CHINESE WON'T FIGHT IN RAIN OR STRONG SUNSHINE.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 10. Heavy rain fell to-day and put a stop temporarily, at least, to the battles which have been in progress for a week past between Chinese and Kiangsu armies west of this city, for possession of which the Governments of two provinces appealed to force of arms. It is a tradition in China that Chinese soldiers will not fight when the sun is strong or in rainfall, in fact in the low lying country between Yangtze River and the Shanghai-Nanking railway, west of this city, where battles are strong and which is intersected by numerous creeks and canals, fighting is next to impossible after rain, the whole country being flooded.

ELECTION RESULTS IN MAINE.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10. Republicans rolled up a plurality of 55,000 votes in the United States Senatorial contest, and a plurality of 36,000 in electing a Republican Governor. A continued tabulation of unofficial returns from yesterday's elections indicated to-day. The figures showed that Senator Bert Fernald had been re-elected with a total of 147,222 votes against 97,059. For his Democratic opponent, Fullon J. Redman, in the contest for Governor of the State, Senator Ralph C. Swann, Republican, polled 148,892 votes against a total of 107,508 for William R. Pattengall, former State Attorney General. In commenting upon the results of yesterday's balloting, Senator Fernald to-day asserted that President Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes would carry Maine in November, by 1,000,000 votes.
