Escape of a Grizzly Bear.

Escape of a Grizzly Bear.

Lisson, Oct. 12.—A grizzly bear has escaped from the bear pit in the Zoological Gardens. The garden was full of visitors, and the keeper made desperate efforts to keep the bear from them. The bear throw him down, tore open his throat and stomach, and then left him dying, to overstake the fugitives. Two visitors felt, and the left him dying, to overstake the fugitives. Two visitors felt, and the bear was tearing them, when six members of the municipal guard arrived. The bear was shot three times before it was killed. The two visitors lacerated by the bear are in a critical condition. The keeper is dead.

Carried in a Cart.

London, Oct. 12.—Lord Tennyson often expressed his aversion to hearses, and yesterday when his body was removed from Aldworth the coffin was cartied from the house by old servants and placed in a smell-cart waiting to receive it. When Haslemers tation was reached the coffin was placed in a special saloon car. Lady Tennyson, Hallam Tennyson and the other members of the family accompanied the mourners and gave directions for the arrangement of the coffin. Mrs. Hallam Tennyson placed a handsome floral wreath on the coffin. Canon Duckworth then offered a brief prayer and the simple ceremony was ended.

London, Ost. 12.—The trunk of a woman's body was found yesterday in the garden around a villa in the outskirts of Pollokshields, a suburb of Glasgow. It has been terribly mutitated. Immediately after death, apparently, the woman had been disambowied, her breast had been cut openand other horrible methods followed by Jack the Ripper had been attempted with evident clumsiness. The head legs and arms had been cut off and sentered through the garden. The features of the face had been summitted that they were unrecognizable. The carciaker, named McEwan, is suspected of the murder. He has not yet been at his post since the discovery of the murder and the condition of the wemen's trunk shows that the bedy was dismembered as much by main strength as by the use of a knife. McEwan drank heavily and was eccentric, but was rarely violent while in liquor.

quarters, Somerset Hall, Dundas street. For the purpose of convenience two sessions were held—afternoon and evening. About 100 ladies were present in the afternoon, and the president, Mrs. Thornley, opened the meeting with devotional exercises.

The principal business transacted was the election of officers for the ensuing year. As to the selection of a president there was but one opinion—that Mrs. Thornley was indispensable to the position and must continue to perform its duties the coming term as she had done so ably in the past. She was unanimously reelected and resumed the chair amidst applicance.

plause. Mrs. Carson, corresponding secretary, Miss Cosford, recording secretary, and Mrs. Darch, treasurer, were also re-elected. "One good term deserves another" was evidently the principle acted upon. The sub-executive will appoint the superintendents of the various departments on Nov. 3.

for membership, and six ladies were received as members and took the pleage of for membership, and six ladies were received as members and took the pledge of the organization.

Mrs. Jarmain, of Toronto, was introduced and received with applause. Mrs. Jarmain said she was one of the first members of the union formed by Mrs. Youmans in Toronto. She complimented the London ladies on their Western Fair work, which was far ahead of that done at the Industrial by the local W. C. T. U. They had eleven unions in Toronto, and yet at their district meetings they did not have the attendance she saw before her.

It was decided to invite the Provincial convention to meet in London next year. This year's sonvention meets at Belleville Oct. 26, 27 and 28. Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Thornley and Miss Cosford will represent London. The Middlesex and Lambton county convention will be held Thursday and Friday at Alvinston. The London delegates appointed were Mesdames Thornley, Hoffman, Darch, Cameron, Carson, Heamen, Perkin, Williams and Higgins, and Misses Cosford, McLeed and Cobban.

Mrs. Cameron on behalf of the lecture committee reported that the services of Miss Yates, Mrs. Lathrap (president Michigan W. C. T. U.), and Mrs. Hoffman, (president Missouri W. C. T. U.), would probably be secured to deliver addressed during the coming winter. It was thought advisable to have lectures also in East and South London, for which it was proposed to engage Miss Anna Shaw and Mrs. Hitchcock or Miss Philps.

Mrs. Jones asked that the grant towards the industrial school work be increased to $15. Carried.

lecture course at reasonable rates had been arranged for the winter months which would help on the temperance sentiment. But the one spot in the outlook which is particularly bright is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the work of this organization. The speaker was sure that prayer had been answered. She expressed her thanks to the workers of the London Temperance Union for their sympathy and co-operation.

Mr. Belcher then sang 'Jesus, Lover of My Soul,' which was admirably rendered.

Hospital-Mrs. Williams stated that committee, who have distributed religious papers or tracts to each patient at every visit. Let us hope, said the speaker, that these silent messengers have whiled away many a weary hour and brought peace to many a troubled hoart. God is blessing the efforts of hospital workers. At the last visit a young girl stated she had found Christ since arriving there.

Press—Miss Simpson alluded to the courtesies of the city newspapers in report.

Narcoties—Mrs. Childs said she would like to be able to reports year of work accomplished, but there are times when seed has to be sown and harvest waited for—and the past year seems to have been one of those times. It had been hoped that when we had the law of the land on our side that we would have seen a marked decrease in the amount of tobacco and eigarettes used by minors in our city, but we find that we cannot yet sit down with folded hands, and the question of "How to enioree the Tobacco Act" has been under serious consideration at several of our union meetings. Knowing the power of the press we have invoked its aid, and the city editors have been most courteous in publishing promptly any antitobacco articles which have been sent them from this department. One meeting of the union devoted to the subject, a paper sent to Petrolea, and the distribution of antitobacco literature constitute the sum total of our year's efforts in this direction.

Mrs. Thornley remarked that as the beysmoker cannot be made to say where he procures the tobacco the law is a failure. Again they would urge that the law he passed in a practical way, and the W.C.

From all parts of Ontario there was gathered to-day in Wesley Hall a representative body of young Christians. The assembly is known as the annual Provincial Convention of King's Sons and Daughters, an order which has 500 members in the city of London alone.

The delegates commenced to arrive last right, but the majority came in on to-day's trains. Altogether they number between 200 and 300. The energetic local reception committee has been busy welcoming the visitors, and all have been billeted at the these silent messengers have whited away many a weary hour and brought peace to many a troubled heart.
