The Sunnyside Boer Prisoners

Forty-One Stoop-Shouldered Burghers Taken to Cape Town.

A Great Central Advance on Bloemfontein Anticipated When Gen. Roberts Gets to Work--

British Losses at Ladysmith Estimated at 800; the Boers' Casualties Between 2,000 and 3,000.

Bread and Meat Plentiful in Ladysmith, and the Horses in Good Condition—Winston Churchill's Account of Saturday's Fighting—Boer Marksmen Make Effective Use of Their Field Glasses—Enemy in Force Five Miles East of Colenso—Preparations at Modder River for an Advance Movement.

London, Jan. 12.—A dispatch from Modder River, dated Jan. 8, says:

Forty-one prisoners belonging to the Sunnyside commando of the Colonial Dutch took a train here yesterday afternoon for Cape Town, under the escort of a section of the Duke of Cornwall's Infantry Regiment. The prisoners were allotted to comfortable seats in the train. Like all other Boers, except the Staats Artillery, they were without uniform. About a dozen wore blue white-spotted scarfs around their blue-brimmed hats. Most of them were men at least 40 years old, but there were half a dozen youths. They looked like typical veldt peasants, loose-jointed, unkempt and round-shouldered. They carried blankets given them by the British troops at Belmont, and watched the preparations for sending them to Cape Town with stolid indifference. Among the prisoners were the second and third leaders of commandos.

Documents captured include political records of residents of the country for 50 miles in the neighborhood of Sunnyside. Stationery of the British Government has been used for Boer correspondence, which was found in the magazines of evacuated towns. Sunnyside is where the Canadian contingent distinguished itself in the capture of a Boer camp, the Boers retreating.

LITTLE NEWS FROM THE WAR OFFICE.

Excepting the deaths from fever and dysentery, Ladysmith prisoners have been in the war office since Saturday's fighting, nothing has been given out regarding the losses in the engagement. The war office states that it has nothing to give out. Arm-chair critics in the reportorial or official descriptions from the seat of war, pouring forth pages of conjecture and opinion, conclude that not much is to be expected of the British hosts in South Africa until Lord Roberts shall have had plenty of time to think and fresh levies shall have arrived.

NOTHING HAS BEEN RECEIVED IN ANY WAY CONFIRMATORY OF THE RUMOR CURRENT IN THE CLUBS YESTERDAY THAT A BATTLE WAS PROGRESSING AT THE TUGELA RIVER.

LORD METHUEN SERIOUSLY HURT.

Although the war office denies the report that Lord Methuen has been recalled to England, inquiries made by a correspondent at Methuen's home in Wiltshire have elicited the information that, when he received his wound, his horse threw him heavily and spinal and other injuries supervened.

GREAT CENTRAL ADVANCE.

It is almost universally assumed that with the landing of General Roberts and Kitchener the prompt return will be made to the original plan of campaign, namely, a great central advance on Bloemfontein, but the most impatient enthusiasts admit that Gen. Roberts will be unable to move before the end of the month.

Lee-Metford cartridges are running short in the British magazines, and, according to a semi-official report, the war office purposes to fall back temporarily upon 100,000,000 "Mark IV" expanding bullets, most of which are already in storage in South Africa. The war office purposes to fall back temporarily upon 100,000,000 "Mark IV" expanding bullets, most of which are already in storage in South Africa.

STRONG FORCE OF BOERS NEAR COLENSO.

The Standard has the following dispatch, dated Monday, from Frere Camp: "Our patrols have searched both flanks of the Boer position. They found a large camp five miles east of Colenso, evidently in anticipation of a British attempt at a turning movement."

FRENCH'S POSITION.

A Rensburg, Cape Colony, dispatch states that the British hold a position on the Boer's right commanding the Colesburg bridge road.

CORRESPONDENCE CENSORED.

The newspapers were reconciled during the early days of the war to cable censorship, taking it for granted that full narratives sent by mail would supply all deficiencies. For some weeks, however, even the mail correspondence that has arrived in London has shown signs of habitual censorship by the censor. Pages are renumbered without logical connection, leaving the happenings described quite
