These come from stomach troubles.

gained consciousness. Kennedy did not and was afterwards removed to his home.

—The announced change of programme of illustrated songs at Spring-bank attracted a large crowd last night. In order that all may see and hear, the songs are being given now in front of the pavilion. Last night a number of portraits of members of B. Company, R. C. I., were shown, while appropriate songs were sung. A new programme of songs is being given tonight, and the programme that will improve —Chatham Banner: Secretary Cairns, of the Dominion Day celebration committee, returned on Saturday morning from London, and Mr. Thomas, where he succeeded in securing the cadet corps of these two cities as competitors for the handsome purses hung up for the drill contest on Tecumseh Park on July 2. These corps each number from 35 to 40 men, and are in the very best shape, both having passed the government inspection during the past week. There is much rivalry between them, and the fight for points between them on Dominion Day will be very keen.

—Guelp Herald: A brakeman named Cox, of London, who was in the city on one of the G. T. R. excursion trains, was severely crushed at the diamond crossing on Friday evening. The train was backing up the "Y," and Cox went between the coaches to couple them. In some way he got caught between the couplers, and was so badly squeezed that his chest-bone was broken and he was otherwise injured. He was conveyed to the passenger station on a train and from there was sent to the general hospital. Though he is now doing as well as can be expected, the extent of his injuries cannot be ascertained. Cox was formerly employed at St. Thomas and was only recently transferred to London.

—The late Francis Nugent, who died in this city on the 11th inst., was of Irish parentage, was born in Leeds county, Ontario, in 1818, and was 81 years of age at the time of his death. At 14 years of age he left Canada for the United States, spending ten years in California, gold mining and milling. He was for some years in Texas, and returned to Canada in 1861. In the fall of 1862 he married Mary H. Oates, in Leeds county, and thereafter came to London and settled on a farm on cond. of London township, where he remained for some 24 years. He then took up his abode in this city, where he resided continuously for the past fourteen years, leading a quiet, unob-trusive, consistent Christian life. In politics he was an ardent Conservative.
His fitness, which was of long duration, was borne with Christian fortitude and resignation. He has left to mourn his departure a widow and adopted niece, Miss Adeline South, and four sons—Martin, of the Canadian Pacific Railway; Oliver, veterinary surgeon, of Cleveland; Richard, commercial traveler, of New York; and Alvarez, dentist, of Cleveland. One son, Charles, died in 1885, aged 17 years.

ALDERMEN VS. TRUSTEES.
While the action between the school board and council is in court, the plaintiffs and defendants have decided to engage in another contest of a more pleasing nature. On July 7 they will fund for the entertainment of the Old Boys.

LONDON'S OWN.
Some time ago a request was made to public-minded citizens to assist in providing funds with which to buy buttons and other requisites for the only khaki-clad corps in Canada, "London's Own." Until the present time there has been no response. The total sum required is comparatively small, especially when it is considered that the boys have purchased their own uniforms. It only needs one subscription, however small, to start others. The Advertiser will be glad to receive them and put the money thus collected in the proper hands.

POLICEMEN AT SPRINGBANK.
A number of the city policemen, accompanied by their wives, children, friends and lunch baskets, went to Springbank yesterday afternoon and enjoyed themselves to the full for seven solid hours. The feature of the day was the baseball match between teams captained by Police Magistrate Love and P. C. Robinson, in which the former nine won by the ample margin of 13 runs to 7 in a five-innings game. P. C. Woolway umpired four innings, and was then relieved by Sergeant Crawford, and the rank decisions given by the latter caused some of the players to address some un-reprehensible language to their superior officer. After the game tea was served in the pavilion by the ladies, and the remainder of the evening was spent in enjoying the many attractions the River Park affords.

FARYON—SPICER.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. W. T. Hill, in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, last Thursday evening, when Mr. C. H. Faryon, of this city, was wedded to Miss Sarah Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.
Spicer, of No. 922 Waterloo street. The bride entered, leaning upon her father's arm, as a beautiful wedding march was played. She was charmingly attired in white organdy, trimmed with white silk ribbon and Valenciennes lace. She wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white bridegroom's roses, and white bridegroom's roses.
Her sister, Miss Lizzie Spicer, and Miss Violet McCrimmon, who were each dressed in pale blue silk, trimmed with ribbon and white lace. They carried bouquets of pink roses. After the ceremony of the marriage, the bride and groom, accompanied by the bridesmaid, went to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Spicer, on Waterloo street, where a dainty wedding supper was served. Subsequently an informal reception was held, and a very enjoyable time was spent. The number and beauty of the wedding presents attested the popularity of the young couple, and the esteem in which they are held. Mr. and Mrs. Spicer left on a trip to western cities, and upon their return they will reside in this city.

At a meeting last night of the Ep-departing pastor of the church, was presented by Miss Jennie Wilson with a set of one dozen silver spoons, accompanied by the following address, which was read by Ernest Phoenix, president of the league:

"We, the members of Hamilton Road Methodist Church Epworth League, feel that we cannot let you go out from our midst without showing in some tangible form our appreciation of your good work in our league during the three years which you have been with us.
We recognized in you, while president of our league, a friend and helper in every way, and it was owing to your reach to the standard at which it now is. While we regret that you are loss will be someone else's gain. We esteem as a reminder of the good work which you have accomplished while

In addition to this presentation, Rev.
