DON'T BUTT IN ON SPOONERS I

It Cost This Man $24.70 to Protest

Against Love-Making. Hartford Conn., Sept. 22.-For "butting in" when Miss Elizabeth Cushman and George Leturney were sitting on the stairs at Miss Cushman's home in Ann street last night, Frank Smith prominent horse dealer, who lives in the flat over the Cushman family, paid a fine of $15 and $9 70 costs in the police court this morning.

"No, George and I are not engaged exactly, but—" stammered Miss Cush ENNENT & BARNES, VETERINARY surgeons—Office, 137 King street; residence and infirmary, corner King and Wellington. 'Phones 688 and 278. TreatWell, von might ask George Any-"Well, you might ask George. Anyway Mr. Smith opened the door so hard it bumped George and he muttered something about the late hour. Pretty George he thought it about time he went home. George said he didn't need any advice from him. Mr. Smith came down with a horsewhip and hit George over the head. We called a policeman and had him arrested." Funds available for security of Queen policyholders, $64,000,000.

"I have nothing to say," said Smith.
"If you had taken your wife's advice it would have been cheaper," said Judge Garvan. MISTAKEN FOR LUNATIC

Rich Utica Lady Was Haled to the Insane Asylum.

Utica, Sept. 22; - Miss Sarah J. Kittle is so rich that she can afford to disregard the latest styles. She was walking through Hicks street on Saturday near the State Hospital, where the harmless patients were enjoying a day of comparative liberty and were amusing themselves on grounds. A girl noticed Miss Kittle's old-fashioned clothes, and said, "Shouldn't you be going toward the hospital instead of away from it?" "Child, you should respect your elders," replied Miss Kittle with dignity. The girl seized Miss Kittle's coat and called for help. She hastily explained to a man who responded that an inmate had escaped from the hospital and he held Miss Kittle while the girl went to telephone to the keepers. In vain Miss Kittle remonstrated. "I'm Sarah Kittle," she exclaimed. "Every one in Utica knows me. Why, I own". She ran over her real estate holdings, which dot the city as do the Astor properties in New York. "Oh, yes, I know," was the stolid an-"all you lunatics think yourselves wealthy or that you're queens or great actresses or something like that."

and her captor, the angrier grew her expostulations the more he was convinced that he should restrain her. An hour passed; two men in authority at the asylum arrived. "She's not a patient," they said. Humblest apologies were offered to Miss Kittle, but she, rightly indignant, refused to accept them.

Do You Know That on Sept. 22, 23 and 24 you can go to Detroit and return for $3 40, and Chicago, for $9 25? Tickets good until Oct. 10. Special train will leave London 10:13 a.m. on above dates. Trunk offices.
