Toronto, April 1.—The weakness in the Chicago market was caused, according to Hay took a slight jump on the market this morning, the thirty loads of'ered being snapped up almost as soon as they reached the stand. The lemand was very great, and prices ranged from $10 50 to $11 25 per ton, while one man was given $11 50 for an exceptionally fine load.

Straw was also in good demand and sold briskly, while oats, the only other offering, brought from $1 35 to $1 44 offering, brought from $1 35 to $1 32 per cwt., according to the quality.

The roads were very rough today, and few farmers cared to make a trip to this city. A large market is expected temorrow, however.
