It is, to a large extent, through the information that has been disseminated in the country, that the swine breeders of Canada have been able to produce in the last ten years over one million dollars' worth of swine products for export. The present minister of agriculture is ready to go further and continue that policy of education and information which helps not only the people immediately concerned, but everybody in the country. #### THE TROUBLE IN FRANCE.

The unrest in France among the employees of the state may culminate in a strike which would probably overthrow the Clemenceau ministry though the republic is too firmly founded to be endangered, as some 10 imaginative correspondents profess to fear. The movement began a few weeks ago when the postal and telegraph services, which are under Government control, were temporarily paralyzed by the defection of public in Paris. The cable dispatches indicate that the strike is to be resumed, and that the railroad employees, who are also servants of the state, will join in it. The immediate cause of the trouble is the introduction of a new classification for promotion of postal and telgraph employees. The men claim that M. Clemenceau has not only become intolerant and obnoxious, but whom he appenaled when out of power. There is an assumption that power, and by whose votes he reached when these have advanced a stage the the premiership.
