PLENTY OF STRAWBERRIES BUT SLOW IN MOVING

Good Market for Cherries, Eggs Stronger, Butter Scarcer, Vegetables Unchanged.

There was a medium-sized market today, in which strawberries were very much in evidence. The berries were offered in very large quantities, but though they were of a very good quality the demand for them was rather slow, due, no doubt, to the high price at which they remain. The majority of them wholesaled for 7 to 8 cents, and sold at retail from 8 to 10 cents, which sold at retail from 8 to 10 cents, which sold at retail from 8 to 10 cents, which is a fairly high price for this time in the season.

Cherries were somewhat more in evidence today, and they seemed to find a somewhat readier market. The price on them varied from 7 to 10 cents.

Eggs showed a tendency to be stronger. The supply was not very great, and they retailed at 19 cents.

Butter, too, was somewhat scarcer than usual.

con the market, and they were sold as low as 70 cents. Beets went for 30 cents a dozen and peas 15 cents a quart wholesale and 18 cents retail.

Oats advanced somewhat on the prices that have been prevailing lately and there was a good demand. Nothing sold lower than $1 50 today, and the majority brought the high price of 65.

A great

A great supply of hay was offered and there was a strong demand. The thirty odd loads offered seemed hardly sufficient to meet the demand. The prices, too, were somewhat stronger again, hay selling as high as $12.

There was a very slow demand for butchers' meats and little if any change in price.

TWO BLIND MEN ARE PATIENTS IN HOSPITAL

A Number of Serious Cases Are Reported by the Staff at Victoria.

There are a number of very serious cases in Victoria Hospital at the present time. One of the most critical is that of William Carroll, the blind man, when his team ran away. Terry had been giving the horses a drink at the fountain at the corner of Dundas and Rectory streets, and before he could escape was caught by the heavy load and had his chest crushed in. Besides having one of his lungs punctured he sustained other injuries of a most serious character. His condition shows little change at Victoria, and it is impossible to say yet 'whether or not

A dispatch to The Advertiser from Toronto says: An example of a cool and audacious swindle, involving $975, has just come

About two weeks ago a Montreal company had occasion to discharge one of its travelling salesmen, who was well known to Toronto businessmen who deal cleverest young business men this with that company. The salesman, who city has sent to the west.

Kilowi to Toronto Businessian who doubtless feeling the need of funds, decided on a trip to Toronto, Hamilton and Company by Wandered into London. One morning he wandered into a big establishment in this city and took an order for his former firm his recent discharge, of course, not being known.

After business had been disposed of he asked to have one of his former firm's checks, made payable to himself, and cashed, which was done, the amount being $50.

A leading hotel next came in for attention, $100 being the amount this time, in addition to a neat board bill which he omitted to settle in his hurry. Several other Toronto firms were then called on, and all met the same fate, the amounts varying from $25 to $100. The fact that The regular July meeting of the Presbytery of London convened this morning in the First Presbyterian Church at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. H. Hamilton was favored with a visit, and ably, there being only the name of the head of the firm to be forged. Next, Hamilton was favored with a visit, and several firms fell victims. Then camp
