Petrolea Gets a Try.

The feature of the last quarter was the ons. d. sick by Gleeson, which was taken by Knight. Mr. Knight brought uarkness to the Sarnia crowd by making a beautiful 50-yard run to Sarnia's z5-yard line. The line held for two downs, and McGowan punted to Brady, who made a forward pass to McCart. It looked as if the pass had been made behind the line, which would have given Petrolea a rouge. However, the referee decided that the ball was passed on the Sarnia line, and Petrolea got the pigskin. The sailors never oudged an inch on the first down, but Petrolea went through for a touch on the next one. Mc-Gowan tailed to convert. Score, Sar-nia 12, Petrolea 6.

On the kick-off the ball went away

On the kick-off the ball went away over McGowan's head. However, the latter ran the ball to his 15-yard line, before being tackled. An onside kick, falled, and McCart punted to the dead line for the Sailors' thirteenth point. On resumption of play, McGowan kicked to Brady, who was tackled in centre field just as the whistle blew, the final score being 13 to 6.

The game was handled by "Tiny" sage and "Vic" Smith, of London. They were strictly impartial, giving only out of the ci were strictly impartial giving only wo decisions which could be at all juestioned. Petrolea Referees Will Refuse To Act As Officials At Sarnia-London Games.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PETROLEA, Oct. 18.—As a result of the poor work of the London and Sarnia officials in the two games that Petrolea's junior O.R.F.U. team has played this season, the Petrolea officials who were appointed to handle the Sarnia-London games will refuse to act and other of ficials will have to be appointed. HAMILTON, Oct. 18 .- In a hard game here yesterday. Toronto Argonauts de-feated Hamilton Tigers, 7 to 5. Referee feated Hamilton Tigers, 7 to 5. Referee feated Hamilton Tigers, 7 to 5. Referee Percy Roberts penalized any attempt at rough play by either side, and drew the line close on line interference; and the Tigers were beaten by a better team. Barring the first few minutes, the game never looked like a Tiger victory. The Argonauts, getting over early nervousness, steadied and beat the Tigers in every department of the game, except bucking. The margin was small, but it was there. Their back field, Gonter, Holmes and O'Connor, had it over the Tigers both in running and in booting. Gonter repeatedly outbooted Manson. The presence of "Dutch" Heuteher and Moteley, both new men on the reorganized wing made a world of difference, and they met the fierce Tiger attacks in the dying stages of the game unfinching, and gave their haives lots of time to work.

The team's easy defeat by the Braves will inspire every other club to fight it with more determination, its experience in the series having shown that it is not invincible. In fact, now that the affair is over, Most of the critics, all of whom picked the Mackmen to win, are wondering how they overlooked the way in which the Boston Red Sox kicked the Mackmen around near the end of the year, or the fact that Detroit took the final series from the Athletics, two games Harper, quarter, H.
