Digger the Badger Confesses He Is a Member of the Weasel Family

eter Rabbit, sitting in the bram-tangel on the edge of the Old Pas-e, with Digger the Badger sitting outside, could hardly believe the thing he had wanted for so was now really his. It was the ortunity to ask Digger the Badger about himself. He had said that a long time he had wanted to ask questions, and now Digger had him that he never would have a "Is it true, Mr. Badger, that you

Once again Digger nodded. "It is quite true, Peter," said he. "I am told that the Badgers used to be rather widely distributed, but we're at home now only in the Far West. My, what wouldn't I give to be out there now!" Digger gave a long sigh.

I wouldn't be here, Peter Rabbit. No, sir, I wouldn't be here."
"But how did you get here? Please do tell me. Mr. Badger. I don't mean to be curious, but I'm just aching to know how you happen to be here and why." Peter's voice sounded very, very eager.

"It's a long story," replied Digger there now!" Digger gave a long sigh.

"It's a lor the Badger.

"If you feel that way about it, what listen." pleaded Peter.

"I didn't leave there because I wanted to," replied Digger. "I left there because I couldn't help it. I was aken away from there. I was only youngster then, not half grown, but remember it just as if it were yes- | ger's Story.

MIRACLES WROUGHT AT STE. ANNE BASILICA

Canadian Press Despatch. Quebec, July 6 .- Two miracles are reported to have taken place at Ste. Anne de Beaupre during the week just ended. Miss Mary McKenzie, eighteen years of age, of Detroit, Mich., who had suffered from birth from a displaced hip, is reported to have been cured after she had spent day in prayer at the shrine of Ste. The girl, according to the story told by her companions, had prayed in the Basilica chapel during the greater part of the day and had later assisted at the evening office. Upon leaving that she went to the shrine where the relics of Ste. Anne are and had only been there a few minutes when she sank to her knees for the when she sank to her knees for the first time in her life. At the same moment she uttered a cry that she was cured. Her injury had prevented was cured. Her injury had prevented her kneeling before.

On Saturday a young French-Canadian from the New England states, Romeo Bilodeau, of Biddeford, Maine, is reported to have been cured of a pedal informity. For many years he had walked with the aid of a main of crutches but after vising pair of crutches, but after rising from mass on Saturday he found it unnecessary to use these.

Robert McCaffrey, Aged 73, Hit Outside Home-Dies

in Few Hours. Special to The Advertiser. Woodstock, July 6.-Robert Mc-Caffrey, aged 73, was killed by being struck by an auto within a few yards of his home on Centre street last night. The car was driven by Ray Robinson of this city. According to witnesses, McCaffrey stepped in front of the oncoming car, and despite the efforts of Robinson to avoid an accident the car struck the aged man and the front wheels passed over him. He died within a few hours of the accident from interest in himses. Robinson was not a person to advise me, as my folks lived in Manitoba. My sister-in-law told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to try it. I took her advice and have been thankful for it ever since. After taking the medicine for three months I can say it has belied me a lot and I am doing fine. Robinson of this city. According to Covalt, front of the oncoming car, and ternal injuries. Robinson was not held by the police. An inquest will be held on Friday.

Robert McCaffrey was one of the -known of Woodstock's citizens He was born in Patterson, Ontario but came to Woodstock in 1880 with Patterson Company, builders of Bain Wagon Company plant. He was employed for a number of years was employed for a number of years with the Hay Company plant here. He is survived by his widow, three daughters and two sons, Will McCaffrey of this city and Ellery McCaffrey of the C. P. R. staff here. One sister and one brother also survive
