THE MACKAY INSTITUTION.

From our men Correspondent

We will begin our letter to our Belleville transfe by eaving that we hope they are all enjoying good health. The boys and guts of the Mackay Institution have been exceptionally free from sickness this winter, for which we are indeed

We have two new blind girls, Jacquetta Harrod and Lazzie Forrest, and a boy, Charles McInness, from a very long dis tance who are believed by all for their kind, gentle ways. We have also a dear little boy Regundel Rowe, from Clarenceville he is very bright and annising and chanks the signs very queer. Our lastest actival is a baby boy, he is only 4 years add and is a winsome little fellow with a very long name tradaliah Salmon

On Saturday a. m. our Senior Hockey train played with the Westmount boys and were defeated by 4.2. In the after-noon our Junior's played with the Umon's and were victorious, the score was 9 to 5. Both games were played on our rink.

Our new printer, Mr. G. Soymour Lyon, who takes Mr. Norman Wilson's place, afrived yesterday morning from Lanark. Mr Wilson is now at work in Ottawa, we are sure of his success in business and socially as he possosses all the essen tials of a good printer and a good friend. Another of our graduates, Mr. T. H Shouldice, is at work in a biscut factory in Ottawa and is doing well.

At Now Year's we were pleased to receive a visit from Mrs. Frank Wiggett, (nee Miss Annie Nichol). This is only the second case of two of our former pupils being united in matrimony. Mrs Wiggett looks remarkably well and likes Offawa.

We regret to say that our Vice-President, Mr Charles Alexander, has had to go to Nassau on account of failing health. We slucerely hope he will be much benefited by the change. We have a very targe school, the new pupils are all young and the little girls' class is very interesting.

WINDSOR NOTES.

Prom our own Correspondent

The Detroit Evening News published quite a longthy article on the marriage of Jas. Goodgrand and Matilda Lafferty accompanied by a cut of each. It said that they were the first deaf mute couple ever married in Detroit. As there are between thirty and forty deaf married couples in Detroit, we couldn't repress a simile

George Muuroe has left the Review, and is going to work in the new match factory in Walkerville on the first of March, as also is Willie Bain, so we are

Rev. Mann held services in Detroit on the 18th inst. If was a very cold day, so the attendance from over here was not very large.

Miss Annio St. Louis is very ill at her home in Sandwich east, so her brother informed us. She is not expected to last much longer. Miss Sophia Lafferty goes out to see her occasionally.

We have received several letters from Charlie Davis, who is on Duck Island cutting logs. Ho is anxious to get away, and says he never was so lonesome in his lite, and all the men feel the same. He expects to be back in Windsor the first of May.

James Goodbrand spent a few hours chatting with his old friend, Albert Schner, at the shop. He thought Bertle, Junier, a great hig boy for his age. We understand he took Ariel Sutherland's little boy over the river to his grand-

I haven't been sending in many notes lately, but then I see I am not the only. pebble on the beach, as Toronto is about the only regular contributor.

We have had quite a soft winter till about the middle of January, when winter set in in carnest, and has kept it up right along. Albert Separ has his hands full filling orders for long boots. The cheapness of factory work does not bother him any, as he has regular custemers and makes hearly all the long boots and strong shoes in his father's

There will soon he plenty of work for the unemployed, as the new match fac tory in Walkerville will open the first of March with about 200 male and female

We used to see the parents of several deaf children, now at school, every week, but have not seen Mrs. Little, mother of Gracie, or Mr. Fairbairn, father of Georgina, once this winter.

Mrs. Eames of St. Thomas, and her daughter, Mess Ina. spent a day visiting Detroit and Windsor not very long ago. They spent the greater part of their time visiting Albert Sepner's mother, and his wife, who was at school with Ina. Sho is quite a young lady now.

I received two letters from girls at your school, but really have not had time to answer them, having already a large number of correspondents. Howto me, and I will try and write each of then soon.
