HENRY TOWNLEY of Dutton

SIR BARNARD, LL.D. in holy orders.

GRACE, wife of Roger, son and heir of Alexander Nowell, of Read; marriage settlement 7th March, 8 Edw. IV., 1468.

JOHN TOWNLEY, named in the will of Sir John Townley as his brother. His base son Barnard was ancestor of the Townleys of Hurstwood.

SIR JOHN TOWNLEY, Knt. = ISABELLA, dau. and heiress of Sir Charles Pilkington by Elizabeth his wife, dau. and heiress of James Gaythforth. Marriage contract dated 2 Aug. 20 Edw. IV., 1480.

A settlement was made on him and Isabella by his father in 1480. He was nine years old at his father's death in 1482, when his wardship was granted to Sir Charles Pilkington. 31 May, 15 Hen. VII., 1500, founded a chantry in Burnley church. In his will dated 28th April, 31 Hen. VIII., 1539, he calls himself of Hapton.

[N.B.—The connexion of Sir Charles with the main line of the Pilkingtons of Lancashire has not been discovered. The arms were the same with the difference of an annulet in the dexter chief point, as shown by glass in the chantry at Wakefield, founded by Sir John Pilkington, the brother of Sir Charles. Sir John married Johanna, the coheiress of Balderstone, who survived him and their issue.

= ANN, dau. of Ralph Caterall, second wife; settlement, 15 July, 23 Hen. VIII., 1531. She married, secondly William Radcliffe, of Hope, son and heir of Sir Alexander Radcliffe, of Ordsall.

[N.B.—Dr. Whitaker had recorded this marriage in the Caterall pedigree.

CHARLES.

ISABEL, wife of Sir John Talbot, of Salebury, and secondly, of John Hopwood, of Hopwood.

GRACE, wife of Thomas Hesketh, of Rufford. Bond of marriage 5 August. 7 Hen. VII.
