

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Points that Point.

EASTER TIDINGS.

Sound the tidings, earth and heaven,
Wake each glad and joyful strain,
Tell it o'er in joyful measure,
Chant the echoed words again.
Jesus lives! Our Lord is risen!
He hath triumph'd o'er the grave:
Jesus lives! In power eternal
To redeem, exalt and save.

Tell it! O thou golden sunlight,
Lighting up our rescued world,
Stars of evening wide proclaim it,
In the azure sky imperal'd,
That he lives and reigns forever,—
Our ascended Lord and King,—
While our hearts and lips united,
Praise and true devotion bring.

—Francis B. M. Brotherson.

Remember the service Monday evening, when Rev. C. McKimmon gives an address. Everybody is invited.

The Ladies had a splendid W. M. A. S. meeting last Tuesday. An interesting letter from Miss Mabel Parsons was read. It told of her work at Spelman Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., where she has charge of the department of "English Language and Literature." The Seminary has this year in attendance nearly 200 girls, the largest since 1893. From other sources we learn of our sister's marked success in Spelman, and we are proud to claim her as a member of our own church. We miss her very much in our church work, but are glad to know she is filling so important a position with such a degree of success.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are free, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people. Every member of this church is expected voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in his or her power to give. Envelopes are provided and can be had from the Financial Secretary. All bills, accounts and monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to C. R. Hoben, Fin. Sec'y.

Families having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the pastor, or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in pews. If you are not a regular member of some other city congregation, you are cordially invited to come with us and find a permanent home.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."—Matt. 6: 33.
