In all, 328 Acts and 1,171 pages.

The Acts in this volume are printed as in the two preceding it, each Act separately and with the Royal arms and the imprint of the Queen's Printer, so that he can furnish copies of any required Acts, or number of Acts; or the Acts relating to any subject or class of subjects can be taken out of the volume and bound or stitched separately. A table of contents with the full titles of every Act is prefixed, and a copious index appended. The Acts of the Parliament of Canada inserted are, of course, to be found in the statutes at large, but they are there dispersed through twenty-one volumes instead of being included as now in part of one; a point of no small convenience. The Acts in this volume are all of great public importance, though not of the same general character and extent as those revised and consolidated in the two preceding volumes. Those of the late Province of Canada, of course, apply to Quebec and Ontario, which then formed that Province, unless expressly limited to only one of them. They include those articles of the Civil Code of Lower Canada (now Quebec) made statute law by the Act 29 V., c. 41, the subjects of which were mentioned in the paper in our volume of last year, and one more which the Commissioners found necessary to the understanding of one of those we mentioned. These articles are given in full, and will be found exceedingly interesting and important, for the reasons assigned in our last paper, to which we confidently refer. They are well and clearly drawn by a Commission comprising three of the ablest lawyers in Canada, and are unquestionable law in the Province of Quebec, and must often affect the rights and interests of merchants, bankers and others in other parts of the Dominion.

The volume before us has added to the obligations under which the Dominion lies to the Commissioners for the manner in which their important, laborious and difficult work has been done.

SUMMARY.

The Public General Acts of the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada requiring consolidation have been consolidated, and will be found in vols. 1 and 2; and those which for reasons before mentioned did not require consolidation will be found in vol. 3, pages 722 to 1,171.

The Acts and enactments of Provincial Legislatures, in force in the Provinces by the Legislatures of which they were passed, and relating to matters forming the subjects of chapters in vols. 1 and 2, will be found in such chapters respectively (but clearly distinguished as applying to such Provinces only), except those from the Civil Code of Lower Canada (now Quebec), which are in vol. 3, pages 393 to 440.

Those which are not so inserted in vols. 1 and 2, and those from the said Code, will be found in vol. 3, pages 1 to 721.

Every Act in the three volumes is printed separately, and with the imprint of the Queen's Printer, and any such Act or any number of them can be had from him at fair and moderate prices.

The Acts and enactments in vol. 3, from the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada, and those from the Statutes of the Maritime Provinces and British Columbia, are translated and published for the first time in French.
