Slowly but surely the principles of the Initial Fish League are invaling the strongholds of the lamilierals and ligots in Ireland. Even the people of Derry will soon be so impressed with the benefits to be secured that they will not wait—us in Land League drew and the light be almost over. The United Irish League does not stand for any party or section of Ireland. It is for all reland, and for all the people, and the "land for the people," and the "land for the people, and the "land for the people.
