

GEORGE N. MORANG, recommends Four Attractive Books.

1. "Wolfville."
2. "The Celebrity."
3. "Bird Neighbors."
4. "The Bookman's Literary Year Book."

"Wolfville." By ALFRED HENRY LEWIS, illustrated by Frederick Remington. A book of fresh and quaint humor. It describes in odd, but not tedious dialect, the doings in a Colorado ranching town. It is full of honest, clean fun, and keen characterization. The eighteen illustrations by Remington are fully equal to that artist's great reputation. Crown 8vo.; cloth, $1.25; paper, 75 cents.

"The Celebrity." It has been suggested that the author of this book—Winston Churchill—is a son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill. This book shows him clever enough for that descent. The New York Commercial Advertiser says of it: "Mr. Churchill's story ought to have a popular success; it has the elements that win the sort of favor that causes the publishers to issue hastily a bulletin announcing large sales." It has humor, plot, and freshness. Crown 8vo.; cloth, $1.00; paper, 50 cents.

"Bird Neighbors." By NELTJE BLANCHAN, with an introduction by John Burroughs. This handsome book, illustrated by fifty superb colored photo engravings, gives an introductory acquaintance with 150 birds of North America. As a popular written guide to the Bird Kingdom it will take a very high place. Crown 4to.; green linen, $2.25.

"The Bookman's Literary Year Book." It includes: sketches of the new authors, with portraits; sketches of famous authors who have died during the year; a list of the principal serial stories in American magazines; synopsis of the best-selling books; an analysis, into departments, of the publications of the year; a list of the larger libraries in the United States; a calendar of literature containing the publication of great books, the birth and death of authors, and other literary events of interest. 12mo.; cloth, illustrated, $1.25.

GEORGE N. MORANG, Publisher, 63 Yonge St., Toronto, Can.

"OUR LADY OF THE SUNSHINE."

UNIQUE CANADIAN MIDSUMMER PUBLICATION
BY MR. GEORGE N. MORANG.

A bright and beautifully illustrated midsummer annual to be entitled "Our Lady of the Sunshine," will be published by Mr. George N. Morang during the coming season. It is a new idea, and could not be in better hands.

"Our Lady of the Sunshine" will endeavor to give to the world at large a true idea of the bright and sunny aspects of Canadian life. The unstinted approval with which the idea of this publication has been greeted has been highly encouraging to its projectors, and numerous orders for its delivery at midsummer are already being received, its popular price, 25c., placing it within the reach of all.

The following well-known Canadian names are among the contributors: Sir James M. Lemoine, Hon. J. D. Edgar, Hon. David Mills, Rev. Prof. Wm. Clark, Prof. Chas. G. D. Roberts, Kit, Jean Blewett, Mary Keegan, Madge Merton, Louis Honore Frechette, Dr. Drummond, Wilfred W. Campbell, Archibald Lampman, Duncan Campbell Scott, Frederick George Scott, W. A. Fraser, F. Clifford Smith, R. S. Cassels. M. Frechette is writing a special poem in French. An original dialect poem by Dr. Drummond, author of "The Habitant" is also assured. Mr. Cassels contributes a fine paper on Canadian wild flowers, with illustrations done by his own camera.

The editorial supervision is in the hands of Mr. Bernard McEvoy, whose literary and journalistic record well qualifies him for the task. A very fine prospectus-poster, with a colored frontispiece, by Mr. G. A. Reid, R.C.A., has been issued, and every dealer should have a copy, both as a means of interesting customers in the new publication and on account of the design and the color printing. Mr. Morang's enterprise is much to be commended.

MR. MORANG'S LIST.

Two new books, thoroughly in touch with the summer season of bookselling, are among Mr. George Morang's late editions. One is "Wolfville." By Alfred Henry Lewis, illustrated by Frederick Remington. A book of fresh and quaint humor. It describes in odd, but not tedious dialect, the doings in a Colorado ranching town. It is full of honest, clean fun, and keen characterization. The eighteen illustrations by Remington are fully equal to that artist's great reputation. Crown, 8 vo.; cloth, $1.25; paper, 75 c.

The other is "The Celebrity." It has been suggested that the author of this book, Winston Churchill, is a son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill. This book shows him clever enough for that descent. The New York Commercial Advertiser says of it: "Mr. Churchill's story ought to have a popular success; it has the elements that win the sort of favor that causes the publishers to issue hastily a bulletin announcing large sales." It has humor, plot, and freshness. Crown, 8 vo.; cloth, $1.; paper 50c.

The marked success in Canada and in England of James Lane Allen's "Choir Invisible" lends special interest to two works by the same author—"A Kentucky Cardinal" and "Aftermath." The two books bound up in one volume. This will be heartily welcomed by all the author's many admirers. A gentle love story, replete with humor, finished style, and sympathetic description of nature runs through these pages. There is a grace and chivalry here, combined with deep insight into feminine character, that will win their way to a wide circle of readers. Crown 8vo.; cloth, $1.25; paper, 75c.

In connection with "Bird Neighbors," the beautiful book with 50 colored plates which Mr. Morang is issuing in Canada, it
