

U.S.S.R.

Many companies in the USSR have a long history in the fisheries sector, but are only now obtaining the rights to deal directly with foreign partners. Independence is however not total, and the ability to buy is directly proportional to the hard currency income generated from sales. Soviets will generally buy more from countries which purchase greater amounts of soviet fish.

MAJOR SOVIET SEAFOOD IMPORTERS

LENRYBPROM
Leningrad, USSR
Contact: Alexander Z. Bragin
Telex: 121587
Products: Industrial Fishing Company

MURMANRYBPROM
Murmansk, USSR
Contact: Alexander I. Kukhtin
Telex: 126117 LODKA SU
Products: Fishing Kombinat Company

MURMANSK TRAVLOT
Murmansk, USSR
Contact: George V. Tishkov
Telex: 126110
Products: Deep Sea Trawlers Organization

SEVRYBA
Murmansk, USSR
Contact: Vladimir F. Korelskiy
Telex: 126112
Products: Association of Fish Production Enterprises

SEVRYBSBYT
Murmansk, USSR
Contact: Alexander Levin
Telex: 126125
Products: Joint Venture Operations

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Canadian Embassy
Starokonyushenny Pereulok 23,
Moscow, U.S.S.R.
Tel:(011-7-95) 241-9155/3067/5070
Telex: 413401
Fax:(011-7-95) 241-4400
Mr. J. Reid Henry
First Secretary (Commercial)