

6. Marine Terminals in Southern California

| County        | Location                    | Terminal Operator                | Function                                                      |
|---------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| Santa Barbara | Cojo Bay (Point Conception) | Union                            | Onloading crude oil                                           |
|               | Gaviota                     | Getty                            | Onloading crude oil                                           |
|               | Elwood                      | Aminoil                          | Onloading crude oil                                           |
|               | Carpinteria                 | Chevron                          | Onloading crude oilOffloading product                     |
| Ventura       | Ventura River               | Getty                            | Onloading OCS and othercrude oil and naturalgasolines |
|               | Ventura                     | Union                            | Onloading OCS and othercrude oil                          |
|               | Mandalay Beach              | Southern Cal.Edison          | Offloading fuel oil                                           |
| Los Angeles   | El Segundo(4 terminals) | Chevron                          | Offloading crude oilOnloading product                     |
| Orange        | Huntington Beach            | Gulf                             | Offloading crude oil                                          |
| San Diego     | Encino                      | San DiegoGas andElectric | Offloading fuel oil                                           |

SOURCES: California Office of Planning and Research, 1977; BLM, Pacific OCS Office, 1978