

2. The Parties, through their respective appropriate governmental authorities, shall consult on matters of mutual interest related to the physical protection of nuclear material, material, equipment and technology subject to this Agreement, including those concerning physical protection during international transportation.

ARTICLE X

1. The Parties shall consult at any time, at the request of either Party, to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of this Agreement. The IAEA may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of both Parties.

2. The Parties, through their respective appropriate governmental authorities, shall establish administrative arrangements to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement. Such arrangements will include the procedures necessary for the appropriate governmental authorities to implement and administer the provisions of this Agreement.

3. Each Party shall, upon the other Party's request, inform the other Party of the conclusions of the most recent report by the IAEA on the IAEA's verification activities in its territory, relevant to the nuclear material subject to this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI

1. The Parties shall seek to resolve any dispute concerning interpretation or implementation of this Agreement by negotiation, inquiry, mediation, conciliation, or other peaceful means of dispute resolution as may be decided by the Parties.

2. If the dispute referred to in paragraph 1 is not resolved within 150 days, either Party may refer the dispute to arbitration. This process is started by the delivery to the other Party a written request for the establishment of an arbitral tribunal ("request for establishment").
