

On Saturday afternoon, in recognition of the importance of reciprocity in trade, the Minister, accompanied by officials and businessmen, visited an exhibition of Philippine manufactured goods. The exhibition had been opened by Roberto Ongpin, Philippine Minister for Trade and Industry. During his tour of the exhibits, Mr. Regan complimented his hosts: "I am impressed by the design and workmanship of these products which demonstrate the impressive capabilities of the Philippine industry. These exhibits help me appreciate the possibility for mutually advantageous trade".
