BELGIAN TRADE MINISTER VISITS CANADA

The Honourable Gerald Regan, Minister for International Trade, announced today the visit to Canada of Mr. André Kempinaire, Minister for International Trade of Belgium. Mr. Kempinaire will begin his visit in Ottawa on April 9 and will depart on April 13 following visits to Toronto, Quebec and Montreal.

While in Ottawa, Mr. Kempinaire will have meetings with the Honourable Francis Fox, Minister of Communications as well as with Mr. Regan. The discussions between the two trade Ministers will focus on Canada-Belgium bilateral trade.

In honour of Mr. Kempinaire's visit, Mr. Regan will host a luncheon attended by some forty representatives of the Canadian business and export community active in Belgium.
