Dear Sir Arthur

I think you heard Dr. Walter Kotochnig, general secretary of I.S.S., give his short address in Moyses Hall last March. A good many people in the University were interested enough to investigate the possibilities of reviving the work of International Student Service at McGill (a committee had been formed once before, but nothing had been done). The result was that McGill had four undergraduates and one graduate representative at the I.S.S. general conference held in Bavaria this summer. Mr. Bickerteth from Hart House and a Rhodes Scholar from the University of
