

CHAPTER V.

AN EXPEDITION.

	PAGE.
Waiting for the Messengers—Two Tired Indians—Bad News of Archie's Father—Uncle Donald Determines to Cross the Rocky Mountains—Preparations—News of the Blackfeet—Indian Canoes—The Expedition Starts	37

CHAPTER VI.

PADDLING UP STREAM.

The First Camp—Rapids—A Portage—Indians Attack the Canoes—A Race for Life—He's Won Just in Time—More Rapids in an Awkward Place—The Canoes Poled up Stream—An Upset—The Indians Again, and Hugh in Danger—Other Canoes to the Rescue	47
--	----

CHAPTER VII.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Hugh's Canoe Arrested by Red Squirrel Just in Time—The Canoe Saved—All got up the Rapids at Last—Camp at the Top—The Blackfeet Reach the Camp to Find the Party gone—The Indians Pursue, and Uncle Donald lies by for two days on an Island—End of the Water Passage—The Horses do not Appear . . .	59
---	----

CHAPTER VIII.

AMONG THE MOUNTAINS.

The Horse Party Arrives at Last but with Half the Horses Stolen—The Start Across the Mountains—More Blackfeet in the Way oblige the Party to Take a Strange Pass—It Becomes Cold—Snow Comes On—A Pack of Wolves—Sleighs and Snow Shoes—In the Heart of the "Rockies"—Corney has a Narrow Escape and a Cold Bath—Snow in the Canons—Difficulties of the Way—The Pass at Last—A Fearful Avalanche	66
---	----