

giment (in which all who loved Hedley Vicars must ever feel a peculiar interest), but also for every soldier in the British army, that each may tread the same path to endless glory, by finding HIM who is " the WAY, the TRUTH, and the LIFE;" that taught of the Holy Spirit, as this young soldier was, they may learn, as he did, to follow Jesus " in the blessed steps of His most holy life;" and may at last inherit with him, those pleasures which are at God's right hand, for evermore.

" If any man serve me, let him follow me ; AND WHERE I AM THERE SHALL MY SERVANT BE." If any man serve me, HIM WILL MY FATHER HONOUR. (John iii.)
