Canada's Leading Horse Market

AUCTION SALES

MONDAY, DEC. 8th. | Sales Commencing at 11 a.m | THURSDAY, DEC. 11th.

In addition to a number of high-class country shipments, we shall have for next week's sales the following special entries.

SALE FOR MONDAY

"REFORMER," the celebrated Imported English Coach Stallion, is to be sold at auction on Monday next. He is well bred and has carried off the prize at several horse shows. He is to be sold without reserve.

"JIMMIE," brown gelding, sired by the thoroughbred horse, "V. R. Customs," 5 years old, sound and well mannered, 15.2½ hands; broken to saddle and harness. He is an excellent jumper and has been jumping 4 ft. 6 in. right along; would make an excellent hunter or charger for an officer.

"GOLDEN FAIRY," chestnut mare, thoroughbred, three-year-old, dam Fairy Form, sire Ailes d'Or. This little mare is very well turned and fast, but has never been raced, as she is only 14.1 hands high. She is broken to harness and sound, and would make a lovely saddle pony for a good sized boy or girl.

HEAVYWEIGHT HUNTER, 5 years old and sound, height 16.2 hands, by Boer Battle, and out of a mare by Rubaio. This will make a high-class hunter. He will be sold without reserve on Monday next.

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY

We will have a number of midweek shipments of good big sound horses for Thursday's sale. City horses will be in abundance on both Monday and Thursday and anyone desiring a serviceable sound worker at his own price should take advantage of this opportunity.

Our stock of BLANKETS, ROBES, HARNESS, ETC., is the best in town to choose from.

FELL DOWN SHAFT AND MAY NOT LIVE

Thomas Payne Probably Fatally Injured in Front Street Building.

At 6 o'clock yesterday another elevator accident took place, which is likely to cost the victim his life.

Working near the edge of the elevator shaft at 81 Front street east, occupied by the Don Cartage Co., and the Dominion Sugar Co., of which concern he was an employe, Thomas Payne of 116 Amelia street, stepped into the opening and fell 40 feet to the bottom of the shaft. Picked up by employes he was discovered to be unconscious, and to have sustained a fractured thigh, a broken arm, several scalp wounds, and at Grace Hospital, where he was conveyed in the police ambulance, it is thought he also may have internal injuries.

CHILD WAS STRUCK.

IRELAND CANNOT IMPORT ARMS

thority, supreme and unquestionable, must be retained by the imperial parliament.

In beginning his speech Premier Asquith said: "I have looked in vain for a suggestion from the opposition which would lead to a possible settlement, and I fancy I have found it where I least expected to find it." In concluding the premier said:

"I am hopeful that discussion, freely and frankly carried out on the lines I indicated at Ladybank and on the lines Sir Edward Carson indicated, may lead to a cessation of the long-embittered controversy and a settlement which will command the consent and good will of all parties concerned. I agree with Sir Edward Carson that we have to consider carefully and sympathetically the case of the Irish minority; but equally we must keep in mind the case of the majority, who, after a struggle extending over more than a lifetime, now see their goal actually in sight."

Darkest Hour Before Dawn.

Mr. Asquith's speech comes at an hour when the newspapers of both parties considered that the attempt at a settlement had reached the stage of deadlock and were taking the gloomiest view for the future. If the compromise is cemented the agitation over the army, which during the past week has grown bitter, will be one of the strongest reasons for it. Sir Edward Carson and some of the prominent Unionists, notably Lord Lansdowne and Andrew Bonar Law, in speeches suggested that the officers should resign and the soldiers refuse to fire if ordered to fight fellow Protestants.

Delicate Situation.

The leaders of the labor unions hailed these speeches as precedents, and asked indignantly why Sir Edward Carson was permitted to advocate such a policy when Tom Mann was recently imprisoned for a speech in which he advised soldiers to refuse to fire on strikers. The present labor situation is so delicate that the Conservatives apparently have begun to fear the influence of their words. Even Sir Edward Carson now declares that the first duty of the army is to obey orders.

A Dublin newspaper today said that Secretary for War Seely had demanded the resignation of Major Crichton of the Horse Guards, a son of Viscount Erne, for his connection with the Ulster volunteers. Thereupon eight officers of the Horse Guards threatened to resign, and the secretary for war withdrew his demand.

KAISER'S ACTION GIVEN SUPPORT

Reichstag for Most Part Commends Removal of Zabern Garrison.

BERLIN, Dec. 5.—(Can. Press).—In the reichstag most of the political parties appear to be satisfied with Emperor William's removal of the garrison as the first step looking to the settlement of the Zabern incident, as it is thought the offending officers thus will be adequately punished.

The Clerical members point out that the transfer of the regiment from Zabern to Hagenau also affects the officers who are removed from the comfortable quarters of the garrison and put to considerable expense. The Alsatian members, however, express dissatisfaction on account of the financial loss which will be suffered by the inhabitants of Zabern as a result of the transfer of the regiment. This, they think, will act as a punishment for the people of that town. The Alsatians demand the removal of the offenders.

The Socialist members also appear to be discontented with the manner in which the government is solving the problem.

SIMPSON IS ENDORSED BY FOUR MORE UNIONS

Socialist Candidate for Board of Control Has Multitude of Supporters.

In addition to the thirty odd labor organizations which have endorsed the candidature of James Simpson for the board of control, four unions—the Brass Moulders, Sheet Metal Workers, Tile Layers and Amalgamated Carpenters—endorsed him at their meetings last night.

SINGULAR SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST PARISH PRIEST

Alleged That He Buried Stranger in Family Plot Without Owner's Consent.

(Special to The Toronto World).

WELLAND, Dec. 5.—Rev. Father Murray of Oshawa will be the defendant in a suit for trespass to be heard in the county court here on Tuesday. Catherine Wick and others of her family, who were members of Father Murray's church, allege that while he was the priest in charge of the Fort Erie parish he buried the body of a stranger in their plot without their consent. They are asking that he be made to remove the body. In his defence, Father Murray denies that he trespassed.

WANTS MOTORBOAT RACE THRU RAPIDS

Capt. K. Larsen of Whirlpool Fame Challenges Peter Langgard to Contest.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Dec. 5.—Capt. Klaus Larsen, who made two successful motorboat trips thru the Whirlpool Rapids, is anxious to meet Peter Langgard of Detroit, who navigated the rapids on Oct. 23 last, in a motorboat race thru the rapids. Larsen recently issued a challenge to meet anyone in such a race, and he came here today to arrange for the repairing of the craft in which he wants to make the trip.

Altho he twice navigated the rapids, and gained country-wide notoriety, Larsen is almost on his "uppers." Luck has not been with him. He has worked at odd jobs for a year or more, and has been out of work for weeks at a time. This week, just when his money was nearly gone, a Falls friends obtained a job for the Niagara hero in a Buffalo hotel. So Captain Larsen, the first man to dare the rapids in a motorboat, is employed as porter at the King Edward Hotel, Buffalo.

"I took that job in Buffalo so as to be near the Falls," said Larsen today, "for I want to be on hand if anyone accepts my challenge to a motorboat race from the Falls to Lewiston.

"I am particularly anxious to meet this Peter Langgard, who made the rapids trip in October. I know I am a better navigator than he is, and I know that I can beat him in a race thru the rapids. Langgard was held prisoner in the whirlpool for five hours or more. When I made the trip, on Oct. 29, 1911, it took me just 31 minutes to go from the Maid of the Mist landing at the foot of the falls to Phil Pitz's dock at Lewiston. And I didn't make a single stop. The whirlpool didn't get me for a second. The year before my engine gave out and I got stalled in the lower rapids."

STRUCK BY CAR.

A man thought to be Nobby Clark, no home, was struck by a Queen car at 7.30 last evening at the corner of Queen and Massey streets. He was conveyed to the Western Hospital in aBtes and Dodds private ambulance, but was not seriously injured.
