

City of New Haven
Saves Vines

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down by a crew of men from the City of New Haven, and were piled up in front of the City Hall. The vines were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening a number of vines were cut down by the City of New Haven. The vines had been growing over the roof of the City Hall, and were about 100 feet long. They were cut down because they were causing damage to the roof of the City Hall.