Curling Seven Rinks ... Hockey League Scores

Note and Comment

The baseball dates are out and seem to satisfy the local management. It's not where the Leafs play so much as how they will perform under the circumstances at any place any old time.

There are just seven competitions in the season open for Toronto curiers, in-cluding the local Ontario groups and dis-trict. Of these the city clubs landed all except two, the following being the honor reli for 1911:

Ontario Tankard—Toronto Granites.
Governor-General's Prize—Collingwood.

Lakeview and the Granites thus divide the honors with two each.

One Round Hogan is to box Kneck-Out Brown in New York, which reminds you of the impossible meeting between an ir-resistible object and the immovable force.

Carl Morris, the locomotive engineer, who is believed to be a real "white hope," has established regular training quarters in Oklahoma and has engaged Con Riley of Cincinnati to instruct him in the art of self-defence. Morris says he will soon be ready to fight any white man in the world. He draws the line in respect to all negro puglists except Jack Johnson and will be prepared to meet the latter next winter. However, Lil Atha may set Carl the task of breaking into the colored ranks thru the Boston Tar Baby.

To which we reply that not being on the inside of the wrestling game we do not know. However, he might write one of the other papers.

The Emeryville racetrack at Oakland will close on Wednesday as a result of the recent legislation in California which makes oral betting illegal. It was originally planned by Thomas H. Williams to race at Emeryville 19) days, or until the middle of March. Mr. Williams has not formulated any plans for testing the new anti-betting law, but he promises to rescrit to legal proceedings in order to have the matter settled in the courts before another winter rolls around. The Emeryville meeting has been successful financially and the racing has been of a higher order of excellence than usual.

Error in Translating Birth Declaration

Wilfrid R. Marchand, goal-keeper the champion Junior Frontenac team of Kingston, is not eligible to play O.H.A. Junior, under the age limit, so the games in the second round against Peterboro will be replayed.

Marchand, it appears, was born in a small village in Quebec, from which the parish priest sent his birth and baptismal declaration. The declaration was written in French and when translated made his birth Aug. 20, 1891, and baptismal Oct. 19, 1891. These dates made him elligible to play junior O.H.A.

One club in looking over the declaration asked for a translation of Marchand's declaration and it was found that an error had been made in the first translation and the correct dates are: Birth Oct. 19, 1890, and baptismal Aug. 20, 1891. By this it is seen that Marchand is two months over age.

it is seen that Marchand is two months over age.

No protest was entered by Peterboro or any other club, but the O.H.A. decided to play the games in the second round over again. With all justice to the Kingston club they were perfectly innocent of any wrong doing, fully believing that Marchand was eligible to play.

Kingston will play in Peterboro Tuesday, Feb. 14, with return game in Kingston on Friday, Feb. 17.
