Grocery Specials

Saturday's half holiday and Monday's full holiday will have an important bearing on the Grocery trade to-day. The average housekeeper will want all her spare cash for other uses, and everybody will want to economize as much as possible in marketing. In order to help you to more vacation money, and bring people out early in the morning, we offer these Grocery specials:

Armour's Roast Beef, 1 lb. tins, reg. price 15c tin, this morning 10 Boneless Chicken and Duck, reg. price 19c tin, this morning...... .151 Soda Biscuits, in 8 lb. boxes, reg. price 19c box, this morning..... .16 Star Brand Lobster, flat tins, reg. price 15c tin, this morning.12 Best Corn Starch, regular price 8c per lb, package, this morning

More than one half of the ministers

onnected with the churches of Toronto are out of town enjoying their annual holidays. The other half either have been away and have returned or they will take their vacation later on. For it is custom, as unalterable as the laws of the Medes and Persians, that clergymen, like school teachers, should have their summer holidays. The length of the vacation varies from one to two months. There is a strong tradesionism among preachers on this holiday question. The Presbyterian ministers have fixed the vacation at two months. At a recent meeting of city, when a vacancy in a church was of the clergymen that the salary would be $1800 and the usual two months' holidays. Two months affords ample time to spend a delightful holiday in Europe. Quite a number of the Presof clergymen who are at the present moment having a good time in the Highlands. The customary vacation of ministers connected with the Methodist Church is said to be six weeks. By referring to another column in today's issue of The World the reader will see that there has been a general exodus of our city clergymen to the The object The World has in view in

.75 publishing the whereabouts of Toronto's clergymen is to establish the fact that a change of scene, a change of climate, is recognized as one of the innocent pleasures of life, as well as a necessity for the maintenance of health. This fact will not be disputed. If humanity were run as some theorists have advocated it should be run everyone of us would be enabled to enjoy a couple of months' holidays in the summer. But the millennium of human government is still centuries off, and instead of everyone being able to have a summer holiday it is only the favored few that can do so. Clergymen are among the favored few. Probably eighty per cent. of the mandard not afford to take a two weeks' trip to the country with their families, even if they had the leisure. Such a trip is too expensive. But a weekly outing on Sunday afternoon by the street cars is within the reach of most of them. Sunday is the one day when the workingman is in a position to enjoy a little recreation, and the street car is the one medium by which this recreation is possible. The opposition to the proposed Sunday car service centres round the innocent pleasures of life, as well as to have a summer holiday it is only the favored few that can do so. Clergymen are among the favored few. Probably eighty per cent. of the manual workingmen of Toronto enjoy no church. If the gentlemen who regular

He is glad to get home and sit around his door step. The workingman leads a very monotonous life between the factory and his home. His life is an equilateral triangle of which table, and C the bed. He very rarely the family supplied with food and clothing when in receipt of their weekly wage, this alleged holiday is often more of a trial than a joy. The average workingman has not the means necessary for making a tour, even if he has the time. The clergyman receives two or three times as much salary as the workingman, and his salary goes on while he is holi-

We do not find fault with the clergyman because his lot is more fortunate than that of the workingman. Nor do we wish to be represented as slobbering over the unfortunate condition of the workingman.

The point we wish to make is this: That the very men who enjoy the comforts, and who are freed from many of the worries of life, are the very view the betterment of the workingman's material and physical condition It is said that the workingmen of Toronto are not clamoring for Sunday cars. On the occasion of the last vote, 49 per cent. of the citizens of Toronto voted for Sunday cars. Practically

Do not our largest sympathies well out to those who suffer from heart disease? It comes so suddenly, and its symptoms are usually so distressing that the direct agony is experienced by the patient. The case of Mr. L. W. Law of Toronto Junction, Ont. who was unable to lie down in bed for eighteen months, owing to smothering spells and parpitation, is by no means exceptional. Who would have thought the case could be cured, and yet one bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart removed the trouble in this case.
