The Tribune says: "Let it be well understood that no one in this country outside of Mr. Sifton's little loaves and fishes following has accepted the pre-sent high protective tariff." PERPLEXED BY MR. TARTE. Montreal, Sept. 5 .- The Daily Witness says: We are thankful to have the assurance from Mr. Sifton, that Mr. Will Prolong His Stay in Europe to Tarte is in this speaking only for himself, and neither for the government, which is resolved at least to take which is resolved at least to take no backward step, nor for the party, which is, Mr. Sifton is sure, by large majority, sound on the question. This being the case, Mr. Tarte's language is, to use the mildest expression, extreme-ly out of place. It is, indeed, unconstitu-tional for a Minister to proclaim a policy contradictory to that of the gov-ernment. We have a notion that the government is more perplexed and non-plussed by the pleasant London Sept 5-Lord Kitchener has and non-plussed by the pleasant London, Sept. 5.-Lord Kitchener has tongue of Mr. Tarte than by all the booked his passage to India by the opposition voices put together. The Toronto Telegram looks on Mr. STOLE HIVE OF BEES. Sifton's interview as mock heroics, and says: Hon. Clifford Sifton and "every Liberal elected west of Lake Superior" are not the stuff out of which martyrs are made. Mr. Sifton is trying to frighten the government into going his way. The government can go its own way in the full assurance that no out-raged principle will ever lead Hon.
