LIPTON MAY WED,

Story of Engagement to Miss Revell of Chicago.

New York, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Grundy had a new story for her followers yesterday in a variation of the oft-repeated story of the marriage engagement of Sir Thomas Lipton. Miss Alice Revell is the charming young woman now mentioned. At the races Thursday, and later in the Fifth-avenue restaurants the tidings traveled like wildfire, but Sir Thomas and his guests were on the Erin far down the bay, and there was no one to tell whether the engagement was only another idle rumor or not.

Miss Revell is a Chicago girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Revell. All three are the guests of the Irish baronet on the Erin, as they were two years ago. The Revells are great friends of Lipton, and after the races are ended Sir Thomas will visit the Chicago mansion of the Revells and will be the "star" attraction at a series of entertainments. Miss Revell is a lovely girl, but then a lovely girl always has the attention of the gallant Sir Thomas. Of course, he is said to be a confirmed old bachelor. However, society likes to talk about it, and the rumor has found many credulous ears. From Chicago John V. Revell, the uncle of Miss Alice, said he had not been informed of any such engagement. The Revells are prominent in the fashionable North Side set of Chicago.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Suburban Railway Conductor Struck by a Bridge Support and Hurled From His Car.

JOHN VANDERBURG LOSES 3 FINGERS

Delegates to American Union Conventions—Wychwood and Woodbridge Notes.

Toronto Junction, Aug. 28.—David Davies, 38 McMurray-avenue, conductor on the Suburban Electric Railway, running between Toronto Junction and Weston, marvelously escaped instant death at Black Creek bridge this morning. He began to collect fares going down the Black Creek Hill, and forgot about the bridge, which is a very narrow one. In passing from one seat to another his head caught the bridge and he was thrown into the middle of the road. It was fortunate that he let go his hold, otherwise he would have been killed. His chest is much hurt, his scalp is cut and his nose injured, but Dr. Perfect, who attended him, does not think the injuries very serious, altho they will lay him up for some time.

A farewell party was given to Miss Masterman at the family residence last night. Miss Masterman goes to Fort William on Saturday.

In the evening his subject will be "An Old Testament Prodigal," from Ps. cxix., 59-60.

The services in connection with the introduction of the new organ in East Toronto Baptist Church will take place next Tuesday evening.

Kew Beach.

The worst storm for several years as far as its results on the Beach are concerned is raging on Lake Ontario, and should the wind veer a little more to the south—it seems to have been a point north of east last night, immense damage would undoubtedly result. As it is, the wharf at the clubhouse has been carried away, the sidewalk and some of the fences east of Lee-avenue have been undermined and all timbers, planks, etc., that were accessible to the force of the waves have been torn from their fastenings and driven westward by the winds, waves and currents.

The the winds blew and the wild waves beat upon the beach, the usual crowd was on hand at the progressive euchre party at the clubhouse last night.

The groynes placed in front of S. Johnson's cottages, east of the clubhouse, have probably saved his property from destruction by the present storm.

Next to the storm, the drainage and sewage questions are the chief topics of conversation. The sanitary condition of some of the properties is such that something will have to be done, and that soon.

Mrs. Jones, Peterboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Wright, "Al Fresco" Lawn.

John E. Edmonds, secretary of the Kew Beach Club, has returned from a two weeks trip to Halifax.

F. J. McCarter of Waverly-road, who has spent a couple of weeks at Ottawa visiting his daughter, is home again.

Miss Flo Foulkes has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives at Malton.

Three rinks of the Galt Bowling Club will play a return match with the Kew Beach Club on Labor Day.

NEGRO'S HEAD ENGINE PROOF.

New York, Aug. 28.—Thrown from a train, struck in the head by the cow-catcher of a speeding engine, hurled 20 feet and carried to a hospital to die, John Davis, a negro, of No. 925 Atlantic-avenue, Brooklyn, surprised the nurses and surgeons by arising from his cot and insisting upon going home. There was only a slight scalp wound to show for his adventure, and the amazed hospital folk permitted him to go. He walked. Davis was going to Sea Cliff yesterday, and accidentally was pushed from the platform of the train by a group of other negroes. His quick recovery took place in the Jamaica Hospital. The Long Island Railroad officials say the engine was not damaged.

Only Common Assault.

Whitby, Aug. 28.—(Special.)—John Lennox, the Oshawa painter employed by McLaughlin Manufacturing Company, who has been lying in jail here for the past two weeks, on a charge of rape on a 14-year-old girl of the same town, received his trial here at the County Judge's Criminal Court, before His Honor Judge McCrimmon. The prisoner is a married man, with two children, who, with his wife, were in the court room. He was defended by T. C. Robinette, K.C., and after the evidence for the prosecution was heard the charge was changed to one of common assault. To this the prisoner pleaded guilty, and was fined $100 and costs or one year in jail with hard labor. The fine will in all probability be paid.
