What action the judges may take to secure the necessary evidence has not yet been made apparent.

Paris, Dec. 30.-There is an exhibi tion at the Volney Club of 100 realistic paintings of Napoleon's Russian campaign by Verestchagin, being a terribly vivid and impressive lesson of the horrors of war. SPAIN AND UNCLE SAM. London, Dec. 30.-A dispatch from Paris says it is quite clear that Spain is carrying on the negotiations with the United States, although her pride compels her to do so in an underhand manner. The dispatch adds that the proceeds of the popular loan, recently issued by the Spanish Government are virtually exhausted; that the buoyancy that followed the death of Maceo is unable to avoid seeking an agreement with the United States.

DEATH'S DOINGS. London, Dec. 30.-Mr. Woodhouse Currie, a member of the banking firm of Glyn, Mills, Currie & Co., died yesterday at his London residence, Richmond Terrace. London, Dec. 30.-Lord Dunraven presided last night over a meeting held at Limerick to protest against the excessive share of taxation which is imposed on Ireland by the Imperial Government-a matter that brought about unanimity of opinion between every shade of political opinion in Ireland, the Tories vying with the Home Rulers in their denunciation of this injustice. Lord Dunraven said he believed he was justified in assuming that the Government listened to the Irish protests without prejudice, and he hoped sympathetically. The speakers included Most Rev. A GREAT WATERSPOUT. There has just arrived at the Portuguese Consulate in Washington a petition from the Island of St. Michael, in the Azores, asking aid, and narrating a great calamity. Nov. 2 a great waterspout was whirled from the ocean over a part of the island and there broke, letting water in a tremendous cataract directly over the city of Povoacao, of about 25.000 inhabitants. Almost in an instant the deluge mounted above the roofs of the houses, after tearing up the pavement of the streets and digging trenches in them, in some places fifteen feet below their ordinary level. All the public buildngs, with their archives, recorded leeds, property transfers; all the churches and houses, in some of which were yet their living, shricking in-mates, and cattle from the hillside, were hurried down into the flood, which brushed from its path the town of Riberra Quente, of 3,000 population, and several outlying parishes From the heights people saw families in their beds floating amidst the chaos Berlin, Dec. 30.—Chancellor Von of cattle, lumber and rubbish, and then disappear. PLOTTING AGAINST SPANISH RULE.

London, Dec. 30. - Private advices received here from Manilla, the capital of the Philippine Islands, say that a conspiracy against the Spanish Government has been discovered in the Province of Bulacan. Many notables have been arrested and a quantity of arms have been seized. In an engagement between Spaniards and insurgents, north of Manilla, the latter are said to have lost 138 men. The court-martial on Dr. Rizal, the organizer of the rebellion, has ended. The prisoner denied leadership, but admitted the authorship of the statutes of the Philippine League and having been in constant rapport with the active chiefs of the insurgents. Russian Ministers Support Military Occupation-A Point Yielded by the Porte.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Daily Telegraph says: M. Nelidoff, while here, warmly advocated a military occupation of Constantinople. The council was convened to discuss this evaporating, and that the Government project. The majority of the Ministers approved M. Nelidoff's scheme, where-upon the Czar announced that he was opposed to active coercion. The Porte has granted the demands of the envoys of France and Italy that their iragomans' be present at the trial of Mosher Bey.

Advices from Constantinople show that the protest of the French and Italian ambassadors against the exclusion of their dragomans from the trial of Mazhar Bey has been effective. Mazhar Bey is being tried by a military court at Marash for the murder of Father Salvatore, an Italian priest who was killed in a convent at Yenigalo in 1895. When the trial began the court declined to permit the dragomans of the French and Italian embassies to attend the sittings. The dragomans protested against this decision and referred the matter to their respective embassies, which, in turn, made representations to the Porte, insisting upon the admission of the dragomans. The Porte notified the ambassadors, that their demand had been granted, and the dragomans will now watch the case to see that there is no juggling of the evidence.

In regard to Cuba, Don Carlos believes that Spain ought to concede Cuban administrative autonomy with littered by the corpses of many who a viceroy of the royal blood.

As to the insurrection in the Philippine Islands, Don Carlos says that the recent events there will weaken the prestige of the religious orders. Referring to home politics Don Carlos is quoted as saying that politicians of Spain are worthless, and only united in the desire for office. The masses however, he asserts, are standing to gether. In conclusion, Don Carlos is said to have remarked that the formation of a national government is at present impossible.
