No. 2 Austin Friars
A. L. Fullerton, ManagerBRITISH OIL TANKER
OF 6,288 TONS SUNK
OFF THE IRISH COAST

NEW YORK, March 11.—The British tanker Pinna of 6,288 tons, with a cargo of oil from Gulf ports, by way of Newport News, was sunk by a German submarine February 11, about 230 miles off the Irish coast, members of her crew reported on their arrival here today on the White Star Line SS. Adriatic from Liverpool.

Three of the crew were Americans, of whom Archie Gibbs and Tom Wilson, both of Newport News, were among the arrivals today. According to Gibbs, the ship was torpedoed at night without warning. He said many of the crew were in their bunks, and the first they knew of the attack was the explosion that threw them out on the floor of the fore-cabin. They had to fight their way to the deck through a flood of oil. All hands managed to get safely away in boats before the ship went down. The Pinna was owned by the Petroleum S.S. Company, Limited, of London, and was built in 1901.

PLEAD FOR CHANCE TO FIGHT INSTEAD OF
SERVING OUT TERM

Men Sentenced at Windsor Make Futile Pleas, However.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
KINGSTON, March 11.—Two Russians, brought here on Saturday from Windsor, to serve a term in the penitentiary, pleaded hard for a chance to sign up with one of the battalions here for service overseas, but the authorities paid no attention to their pleas. The prisoners are George Furlet and Theodore Belinski, and they were sentenced to two years and a half each for holding up and robbing an Austrian named Mike Zocina, of $1,500.

"We don't want to go to jail, we want to fight," said Furlet, as they were in the city police station, awaiting removal to the prison at Portsmouth.

Recruiting officers, who are scouring this district for recruits, would have been glad to have taken the Russians, but there was nothing "doing." Men once sentenced to the "pen" have no chance to enlist, and so the two Russians must spend the next two years and a half in one of the prison workshops.

A large number of men in the penitentiary have offered to go to the front to do their "bit" if given a chance. There are many behind the big walls who would make fine recruits, while there are also a goodly number who have seen military service, and who would only be too glad of a chance to gain their freedom, and help chase the Huns. There are some who intend to enlist when their time expires, providing the war is not over by that time.

Some time ago there was a movement on foot to secure the release of some of the men whose terms had almost expired, for overseas service, but something happened, and the men did not get a chance to go, and there was keen disappointment among them.

When the "Russians" were arrested and convicted at Windsor, it was reported that they were Austrians.

BROUGHT HOME DEAD

TORONTO, March 11.—A mysterious case in which a dead man, a limousine (owner unknown), figure, occurred last night. Between 7 and 8 o'clock a car drove up to the residence of Wm. About an hour later, Mrs. Douglass returned home, and found the body of her husband lying in the hall. Thinking that he was in a faint, she sent for a doctor, who pronounced the man dead, and added that life had been extinct for some hours. The police are investigating.
