ARIS. Dec. 14 .- A German attack on Lassigny, that part of the front nearest to Paris, was made Monday in great force, says La Liberte's correspondent with the French army. It appears to have been concerted to cocoincide with von Bethmann-Hollweg's note, probably with a view to impressing the French by a local success. "The Germans brought together about 40,000 men from the best divisions." adds the correspondent, "and oncentrated corresponding quantities of artillery. The attack was preceded by a bombardment lasting for hours. The French were not taken by surprise and received the assaulting waves by a heavy fire from their three-inch guns and machine guns, tearing the ranka terribly.
