shows a fair gain. Country news centinues bullish.

Oats—Closed ¼c lower in sympathy with weakness in wheat; trade light.

Provisions—The provision market ruled strong and active from the start, with a good demand from the packing interests and commission houses, and final figures showed good gains.

"There is no panic—only a slight at the strong and strong and Ine demand was not urgent, however, and these buyers sold out again before the close, leaving the market sold out and in a good position for a rally. Should Liverpool cables come higher to-morrow, as we believe they will, our market will have another advance, and in case of any important recession in the early trading tomorrow, would consider wheat a purchase.

"That is funny, isn't it? He neglective the neglective that your Uncle Sam must have your pulp, but you can do without his machinery.

morrow, would consider wheat a purchase.

Corn—Early predictions of larger receipts, as a result of colder weather and lower Liverpool cables, caused some early weakness in the market, but offerings went into strong hands, and buying by the leading bull house was liberal. The strength in the provision market, and a recovery in price of hogs, added to the strength. The receipts may increase somewhat, but the equality of corn is such that they will not prove burdensome, and we see nothing but probable higher prices for the near future.

Oats—There was some weakness early but higher cash prices were predicted unless receipts increase materially. Good oats here and in the country are too scarce to expect much decline, and we would rather buy oats on breaks than risk taking the short side.

In saxony $3.00 an acre 40,000,000 acres of Ontario forest would produce $30,-000,000 acres of Ontario forest would produce $30,-000,000 annually.

Charles W. Gillett to Peter J. Morgan:
Wheat—Sentiment was bearish this morning owing to the fact that Liverpool closed ½ lower. Northwestern receipts were larger than last year, and the visible showed an increase of 1,800,000 bushels. Cash markets here and elsewhere were steady, with a good demand, and a private cable reported cash wheat on the other side 3c higher for parcels. Northwestern markets were weak for futures, especially Duluth, where arrivals have been larger than shipments, and the demand has fallen off, Durum wheat there being 1½c lower.
