JOHN CATTO & SON 55 TO 61 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.

GUARANTEE FUND WAS DEVICE OF DIRECTORS

For Directors to Buy and Sell Bank Stock—McGill Returns to Kingston.

According to Chas. McGill's evidence, and the finding of Geo. Kappel, official referee in the Ontario Bank liquidation, the "officers' guarantee fund," of which so much has been said, was merely a device of the directors by which the Ontario Bank could buy and sell its own shares.

"That must be my finding in reference to this case," he said at the conclusion yesterday, "but it is only a question of fact. The law is another matter. Let it be understood that this case before me is only partially completed."

He didn't consider that any ground could be gained by continuing the investigation at present, as many of the legal luminaries were away on vacations, so an adjournment until September was made.

The enquiry, as has been said, was to serve as a guide in deciding what to do with the $250,000 fund. It is jointly held by $250,000 worth of shares of the bank's stock. McGill stated frankly that the shares were sold, and that the money was used for the purpose of buying back the bank's stock.

McGill remained in Toronto over night and will leave for Kingston this morning. Mr. Kappel said that it was hardly likely it would be necessary to bring him up again in September.
