The most successful concert in the history of Niagara was held at the Queen's Royal Casino on Friday evening, when the delightful program arranged by Mr. Harold Crane, the favorite New York musical comedy artist, was enjoyed by a capacity audince, many people having to content themselves with seats on the verandahs outside. Mr. Crane was assisted by Miss Dorothy Taylor, wearing a white satin gown; Miss Alice Ramsay, in white, and Miss Lillian Moodey, who was looking charming in a pink frock and sang her selections in true grand opera style. The songs by Mr. Crane and "The Boys," Messrs. Thos. Miller, Winnett, Thompson, J. C. Suydam, D. W. Kenefick, F. W. Silverthorne, Ed. Greiner, G. S. Howell, J. Thomas and H. Moncrieff, were easily the hit of the evening and was delivered with a vim seen in few professional entertainments, and which reflected great credit upon Mr. Crane's 'ability as a coach. The evening concluded with a most enjoyable informal dance.
